COPY of COMMISSION to inquire into the State of the Established Church, with reference to Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues.

WILLIAM THE FOURTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith.: To the Most Reverend Father in God Our right trusty and entirely-beloved councillor William, Archbishop of Canterbury, Our right trusty and well-beloved councillor John Singleton, Lord Lyndhurst, Our Chancellor of Great Britain, the Most Reverend Father in God Our right trusty and entirely-beloved councillor Edward, Archbishop of York, Our right trusty and right well-beloved cousin and councillor Dudley, Earl of Harrowby, the Right Reverend Father in God Our right trusty and well-beloved councillors Charles James, Bishop of London, the Right Reverend Fathers in God John, Bishop of Lincoln, and James Henry, Bishop of Gloucester, and Our right trusty and well-beloved councillors Sir Robert Peel, Baronet, Henry Goulburn, Charles Watkin Williams Wynn, Henry Hobhouse, and Sir Herbert Jenner, Knight, Greeting: Whereas We have thought it expedient, that the fullest and most attentive consideration should be forthwith given to the state of the several Dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the Amount of their Revenues, and the more equal distribution of Episcopal Duties, and to the prevention of the necessity of attaching by commendam to Bishoprics Benefices with Cure of Souls; that the state of the several Cathedral and Collegiate Churches in England and Wales should be also taken into consideration, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as may render them most conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church; and that the best mode should be devised of providing for the Cure of Souls, with a special reference to the Residence of the Clergy on their respective Benefices. Know ye, that We, reposing great trust and confidence in your zeal, ability and discretion, have authorized and appointed, and do by these presents authorize and appoint, you the said William Archbishop of Canterbury, John Singleton Lord Lyndhurst, Edward Archbishop of York, Dudley Earl of Harrowby, Charles James Bishop of London, John Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Bishop of Gloucester, Sir Robert Peel, Henry Goulburn, Charles Watkin Williams Wynn, Henry Hobhouse and Sir Herbert Jenner, or any three or more of you, to consider the state of the several Dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the Amount of their Revenues, and the more equal distribution of Episcopal Duties, and the Prevention of the necessity of attaching by commendam to Bishoprics Benefices with Cure of Souls: And We do hereby authorize and appoint you to consider also the state of the several Cathedral and Collegiate Churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as may render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church; and to devise the best mode of providing for the Cure of Souls, with special reference to the Residence of the Clergy on their respective Benefices: And for the better enabling you to fulfil the objects of this Our Commission, We do by these Presents give and grant to you, or any three or more of you, full power and authority to call before you, or any three or more of you, such persons as you shall judge necessary, by whom you may be the better informed on the Subjects herein submitted for your Consideration: And We do hereby give and grant unto you, or any three or more of you, full power and authority, when the same shall appear to be requisite, to administer an oath or oaths to any person or persons whatsoever to be examined before you, or any three or more of you, touching or concerning the Premises: And We do also give and grant unto you, or any three or more of you, full power and authority to cause all and singular the Officers, Clerks, Ministers, and others, attached to or connected with the said Cathedral and Collegiate Churches, and with any Ecclesiastical Benefices, having in their custody any rolls, records, order books, papers, or other writings relating thereto, to bring and produce the same upon oath before you, or any three or more of you. And Our further Will and Pleasure is, that you, or any three or more of you, do and shall, with all convenient speed, report to Us, under your hands and seals respectively, your opinions as to what Measures it would be expedient to adopt on the several points herein submitted for your consideration. And We further will and command, and by these presents ordain, that this Our Commission shall continue in full force and virtue, and that you Our Commissioners, or any three or more of you, shall and may, from time to time, proceed in the execution thereof, and of every matter and thing therein contained, although the same be not continued from time to time by adjournment. And We do hereby command all and singular Our Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Mayors, Bailiffs, Constables, Officers, Ministers, and all other Our loving Subjects whatsoever, as well within liberties as without, that they be assistant to you and each of you in the execution of these Presents. And for your assistance in the due execution of this Our Commission, do further give you power and authority to appoint any fit and proper person to be Secretary to this Our Commission, and to attend you, whose services and assistance We require you to use from time to time, as occasion shall render necessary. In witness whereof, We have caused these Our Letters to be made patent. Witness Ourself at Westminster, the Fourth Day of February, in the Fifth Year of Our Reign.

By Writ of Privy Seal.

EDMUNDS.

FIRST REPORT from His Majesty's Commissioners appointed to consider the State of the Established Church, with reference to Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues.

TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

WE, Your Majesty's Commissioners, appointed by a Commission under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, bearing date the 4th day of February 1835, to consider the State of the Established Church, with reference to Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues, having entered upon the Inquiry committed to us, humbly offer to Your Majesty this our First Report.

With the exception of a Subject, to which we shall advert in a subsequent part of our Report, we have hitherto directed our attention to that Branch of the Inquiry which stands first in Your Majesty's Commission, namely "the State of the several Dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the Amount of their Revenues, and the more equal Distribution of Episcopal Duties, and the Prevention of the Necessity of attaching by Commendam to Bishoprics Benefices with Cure of Souls."

In order to present to Your Majesty our Suggestions upon this Subject in the most convenient form, we have arranged them under the following heads:—

Territory, Revenue and Patronage.

I. Territory.

The Map of England and Wales, marked according to their present Ecclesiastical Divisions, will exhibit the great Inequality which exists between the different Dioceses. This Inequality, though diminished, was far from being remedied by the erection of new Sees at the Reformation*, and the Inconveniences resulting from it have been greatly increased by the immense and partial growth of the Population.

Although various Circumstances render it impossible to establish a perfect Equality of Dioceses, we are of opinion that the Disparity which now exists between them, will admit of considerable Diminution.

The extent of Episcopal Duties, while it increases in some degree with the Population, is also materially affected by the Number and Distance of Benefices within each Diocese. It is not, therefore, to Population alone that we deem it right to look on the present occasion. Attention must likewise be paid to other local circumstances.

We are not prepared to recommend any Increase in the total number of Episcopal Sees, but we are of opinion, that by the Union of certain existing Bishoprics, of which the combined Duties will not be too onerous for a single Bishop, by the erection of Two New Sees in the province of York, and by the transfer, in some cases, of a district from one Diocese to another, an arrangement may be made for the general performance of Episcopal Duties more satisfactory than that which at present subsists.

The Maps and Tabular Statements which accompany this Report, will exhibit the actual Condition of the several Dioceses in England and Wales, and the Alterations which we venture to suggest.

Under this head we proceed to submit to Your Majesty the following Propositions, subject to such Modifications as, upon further Inquiry, may appear to be advisable.

* The Bishoprics of Chester, Peterborough, Oxford, Gloucester, and Bristol, were erected in the reign of Henry the Eighth.

1. That two new Sees shall be erected in the Province of York; one at Manchester and the other at Ripon; at each of which places there is a Collegiate Church, well adapted for a Cathedral.

2. That the Diocese of Manchester shall consist of those parts of the county of Lancaster which compose the Deaneries of Amounderness, Blackburn, Leyland, Manchester and Warrington; and which now form part of the Diocese of Chester.

3. That the Diocese of Ripon shall consist of those parts of the county of York which compose the Deaneries of Richmond, Catterick and Boroughbridge, in the Diocese of Chester; of the Deanery of Craven; and of such parts of the Deaneries of the Ainsty and Pontefract, in the county and Diocese of York, as lie to the westward of the following Districts; viz. the Liberty of the Ainsty, and the Wapentakes of Barkston, Ash, Osgoldcross and Staincross.

4. That to the Diocese of Carlisle shall be added those parts of Cumberland and Westmorland which now form part of the Diocese of Chester, the Deanery of Furnes and Cartmel, in the county of Lancaster, and the Deanery of Kirkby Lonsdale, in the counties of Lancaster and York; also in the present Diocese of Chester; and the Parish of Aldeston, in the county of Cumberland, which is now inconveniently situated in the Diocese of Durham.

5. That further, with respect to the Diocese of Durham, that part of the county of Northumberland called Hexhamshire, which now belongs to the Diocese of York, shall be transferred to that of Durham; and that a few insulated parishes in Yorkshire, now belonging to the Diocese of Durham, shall be transferred to that of York or Ripon, by which Dioceses, under the proposed arrangement, they will be respectively surrounded.

6. That to the Diocese of Chester, reduced according to the foregoing propositions, shall be added those parts of the county of Salop which are now in the Dioceses of Lichfield and Coventry, and St. Asaph; and which must then be included, with the remainder of the Diocese of Chester, in the Province of York.

7. That the county of Nottingham shall be transferred to the Diocese of Lincoln, from that of York; which Diocese will then consist of the whole county of York, except the parts which are to be included in the Dioceses of Carlisle and Ripon.

8. That the Diocese of Lincoln shall in future consist of the Counties of Lincoln and Nottingham, which latter County will then be in the Province of Canterbury.

9. That the Sees of St. Asaph and Bangor shall be united; and that the Diocese shall consist of the whole of the two existing Dioceses (except that part which is in the county of Salop), and of all those Parishes in the county of Montgomery which now belong to the Dioceses of St. David's and Hereford. One advantage which will result from the union of these two Sees will be, the opportunity afforded of applying a part of the Impropriations, which constitute nearly the whole property of the Bishoprics, to the augmentation of poor and populous Vicarages in the united Diocese.

10. That those Parishes in the county of Hereford which are now in the Diocese of St. David's and the Deanery of Bridgnorth, locally situate between the Dioceses of Lichfield and Hereford, shall be added to the Diocese of Hereford; that those Parishes which are in the county of Worcester and Diocese of Hereford shall be transferred to the Diocese of Worcester; and those which are in the county of Montgomery and Diocese of Hereford, to the Diocese of St. Asaph and Bangor.

The Diocese of Bristol presents a peculiarly inconvenient arrangement; it consists of the City of Bristol, with some adjacent Parishes; and of the County of Dorset, which is separated from the seat of the Bishopric by the County of Somerset.

We

We recommend, as a more convenient arrangement, that the County of Dorset shall be transferred to the Diocese of Salisbury; and that the remainder of the present Diocese of Bristol, consisting of the city of Bristol, and its adjacent parishes, shall be united to some other Diocese.

Two modes of effecting this object have suggested themselves to us: the first, which is that of uniting the Bishoprics of Gloucester and Bristol, involves this objection, that the great and populous city of Bristol would no longer be the residence of a Bishop. The other is that of uniting the Dioceses of Bristol and Llandaff, the latter having no house of residence for its Bishop. If this plan be adopted, it cannot be denied that the interposition of the Bristol Channel between the two divisions of the Diocese will produce some inconvenience, and that the Bishop will be resident at a considerable distance from the greater part of his Diocese; but, under all the circumstances of the case, we are prepared to recommend,

11. That the Sees of Llandaff and Bristol shall be united; and that the Diocese shall consist of the city of Bristol and adjacent parishes, now in the Diocese of Bristol, and of the present Diocese of Llandaff, with the addition of those portions of the county of Monmouth which are now in the Diocese of St. David's and Hereford, and of certain parts of the Deanery of Brecon, now in the Diocese of St. David's.

We further propose,

12. That the Diocese of Gloucester shall consist of the county of Gloucester, (except those parishes which are now in the Diocese of Bristol, and that part of the Deanery of Campden, which lies to the north-east of the chapelry of Snowshill); of the Deaneries of Malmesbury and Cricklade, in the county of Wilts, now in the Diocese of Salisbury; and of the parishes of Red Marley, Stanton St. James, Chaseley, Eldersfield, Bushley, Breedon, with Norton and Cuttsdean, Overbury, with Washbourne, Teddington and Alston, Sedgbarrow and Iccomb, now in the county and Diocese of Worcester.

13. That the Diocese of St. David's shall consist of the present Diocese, except those parts which are to be transferred to the Dioceses of St. Asaph and Llandaff.

14. That the Diocese of Worcester shall consist of the whole county of Warwick, part of which is now in the Diocese of Lichfield and Coventry, of the county of Worcester, excepting the parishes transferred to the Diocese of Gloucester, and of that part of the Deanery of Campden which is to be taken from the Diocese of Gloucester.

15. That the Diocese of Lichfield shall consist of the counties of Stafford and Derby.

16. That the Diocese of Peterborough shall consist of the counties of Northampton, Rutland and Leicester; the last county being added to it from the present Diocese of Lincoln.

17. That the Diocese of Ely shall be increased by the counties of Huntingdon and Bedford, now in the Diocese of Lincoln, by the Deaneries of Lynn and Fincham in the county of Norfolk and Diocese of Norwich, and by the Archdeaconry of Sudbury, in the county of Suffolk and Diocese of Norwich, with the exception of the Deaneries of Sudbury, Stow and Hartismere, which will remain in the latter Diocese.

18. That the Diocese of Norwich shall consist of the counties of Norfolk and Suffolk, with the above-mentioned exceptions.

19. That the Diocese of London shall consist of the Metropolis and parts adjoining, namely, the city of London and county of Middlesex, the parishes of Barking, East Ham, West Ham, Little Ilford, Low Layton, Walthamstow, Wanstead St. Mary, Woodford and Chingford, in the county of Essex, all in the present Diocese of London; the parishes of Charlton, Lee, Lewisham, Greenwich, Woolwich, Eltham, Plumstead, and St. Nicolas Deptford, in the county of Kent, and St. Paul Deptford, in the counties of Kent and Surrey, all in the Diocese of Rochester; the borough of Southwark, and the parishes of Battersea, Bermondsey, Camberwell, berwell, Christchurch, Clapham, Lambeth, Rotherhithe, Streatham, Tooting, Graveney, Wandsworth, Merton, Kew and Richmond, in the county of Surrey and Diocese of Winchester; and the parishes of St. Mary Newington, Barnes, Putney, Mortlake, and Wimbledon, in the county of Surrey, and in the peculiar jurisdiction of the Archbishop of Canterbury, together with all Extra-parochial places locally situate within the limits of the parishes above enumerated, except the district of Lambeth Palace, which shall remain in the Diocese of Canterbury.

In arranging the Diocese of London, our great object has been to bring under the jurisdiction of the same Bishop, the Metropolis and the Suburban Parishes; and, in assigning the Boundaries of the Diocese, we have adopted those fixed by an Act passed in the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty's reign, as comprising the Metropolitan District.

In consideration of the great additional Population which will then be placed under the superintendence of the Bishop of London, we have thought it right to relieve that Diocese from the whole county of Hertford, and from those parts of the county of Essex which are not included within the new limits.

20. That the Diocese of Rochester shall consist of the City and Deanery of Rochester, of the county of Essex, (excepting those parishes which will remain in the Diocese of London), and of the whole county of Hertford, and that an arrangement shall be effected, at the earliest convenient opportunity, by which a Residence for the Bishop of Rochester may be provided in the county of Essex or Hertford, instead of his present house of residence at Bromley in Kent.

21. That the Diocese of Oxford shall be increased by the addition of the county of Buckingham from the Diocese of Lincoln, and of Berkshire from that of Salisbury.

22. That to the Diocese of Salisbury, reduced according to the foregoing Propositions, shall be added the whole county of Dorset, now part of the Diocese of Bristol.

23. That the Diocese of Canterbury shall consist of the county of Kent, (except those parts which are to be included in the Dioceses of London and Rochester,) and of the district of Lambeth Palace, and the Parishes of Addington and Croydon, in the county of Surrey.

24. That the Diocese of Winchester shall remain unaltered, except as to those parts which are to be transferred to the Dioceses of Canterbury and London.

25. Some doubts having been raised as to the jurisdiction of the Bishop of Exeter over the Scilly Islands, we think that those doubts should be removed; no other Suggestion is offered respecting that Diocese, nor is it proposed that any alteration should be made in the Diocese of Bath and Wells, or in that of Chichester.

We further propose,

26. That all Parishes not specified in this Report, which are locally situate in one Diocese, but under the jurisdiction of the Bishop of another Diocese, shall become subject to the jurisdiction of the Bishop of the Diocese within which they are locally situate.

We have used our best endeavours to learn the opinions of the several Bishops, respecting these proposed arrangements, as far as they affect their respective Dioceses, and have availed ourselves of many suggestions, which their local knowledge enabled them to supply.

If Your Majesty shall approve of the above Propositions, it will be necessary that we should consider of some plan for providing a Residence for each of the Bishops of Manchester and Ripon, and also for the Bishop of Lincoln, whose residence at Buckden will not then be within his Diocese.

The adoption of the alterations now suggested, will involve the necessity of varying the Limits of some Archdeaconries and Rural Deaneries; and we further think, that it will be highly expedient to place every Parish within a Deanery, and every Deanery within an Archdeaconry, and that no Archdeaconry should extend into more than one Diocese.

II. Revenue.

In considering the subject of Episcopal Revenues, we have been materially assisted by the Returns made to the Commissioners, appointed under a Commission, issued by Your Majesty in the year 1832, and extended in the years 1833 and 1834, for inquiring (amongst other things) into the "Revenues and Patronage belonging to the several Archiepiscopal and Episcopal Sees in England and Wales."

These Returns generally present the Average of Three years, ending 31st December 1831; but in some instances they contain corrections to a later date.

As the greater part of the Episcopal Revenues arises from Fines on the renewal of Leases, of which some are granted for three lives, renewable when a life drops, and others for 21 years, renewable every seven, and in towns for 40 years, renewable every 14, it is manifest, that a period of three years is too short to exhibit a correct Average of the Annual Value of the several Sees, and that an Average, so taken, will show an excess, where large Fines have recently accrued, and a deficit, where no Fine, or an unusually small amount of Fines, has been received. But as this point has been adverted to by the Bishops, in estimating the probable Increase or Diminution of the Incomes of their respective Sees, we may venture to refer Your Majesty to the following Table, framed from those Returns, as containing information sufficiently accurate for the purposes of this Report.

DIOCESE.	Net Income on Three Years' Average, ending 31 Dec. 1831.	PROBABLE CAUSES of INCREASE OR DIMINUTION.	Estimated future Net Income.
Canterbury -	19,182	-- Expected increase of £. 1,544, shown by the following statement; From fines, £. 1,366, and from the diminution of the expenses of repairs of farm buildings, £. 400 - - - £. 1,766 Deduct therefrom, in respect of yearly allowance to be henceforth made to Lessees of Estates of the See, for reversionary augmentations, to the amount of £. 1,040, granted by the Archbishop to poor livings in the patronage of the See 222 £. 1,544 One fortieth part of a sum of £. 60,000 borrowed on mortgage under an Act of Parliament for rebuilding Lambeth Palace, and making additions to the Mansion at Addington, is payable yearly, with interest on the principal remaining unpaid. The present yearly payment amounts to £. 3,780, including interest, which will decrease at the rate of £. 60 every year. The last payment will be in 1873.	17,060, gradually increasing to £. 20,700 in 1873.
York - -	12,629	-- The average annual amount of Fines on Renewals, for the three years ending the 31st Dec. 1831, exceeded, from particular circumstances, the usual average by at least £. 2,000; and there will be a further decrease of about 20 per cent. in the amount of the proceeds of the Estates generally, from the diminution of the value of agricultural produce: the income of the See will also be further reduced by augmentations of the small livings in the patronage of the Archbishop, about to be made, in addition to those already granted.	10,600

	£.		£.
London -	13,929	-- It is expected that there will be a decrease in the future average income arising from fines upon renewals of leases for lives, and from woods and manorial profits, to the amount together of £. 1,725, and a further decrease from intended augmentations of the livings in the patronage of the See, in addition to those already made. Besides which, one-twentieth part of the sum of £. 10,000, borrowed on mortgage for rebuilding London House, is payable yearly, with interest on the principal remaining unpaid. The last payment will be in 1839.	12,204, after 1839.
Durham -	19,066	-- No accurate judgment can be formed as to the future average amount of fines on the renewal of leases of mines and quarries, as the profits attending them must depend principally upon the several districts in which the collieries will be worked. Since the above Return, the Bishop has granted permanent augmentations to small livings in his patronage, to the amount of £. 1,170 per annum out of the revenues of the See. No other ground for expecting increase or decrease.	17,890
Winchester -	11,151	-- The augmentations already made of small livings in the patronage of the See will reduce the annual income by about £.400. It is intended further to augment all the small livings in the gift of the See to £. 200 per annum, except in respect of augmentations; there are no grounds for expecting that the future income will vary materially from the sum stated.	10,750
St. Asaph -	6,301	-- The greater part of the income of the See arises from tithes which have gradually declined since 1827, when they amounted to £.6,636. By a supplemental statement, it appears that the produce of the tithes was in 1834 £.5,214, which is below their average for the three years ending in 1831 by the sum of £.607, and that the produce of the mines was in the same year £.263, which is less than the same average by the sum of £.415; showing the income of the year 1834 to be below the average stated by the sum of £. 1,022; and there seems to be no prospect of improvement.	5,280
Bangor -	4,464	-- By a supplemental statement, it appears that the tithes in the years 1833 and 1834, have fallen below the average of the three years ending 31st December 1831 by £.650, or about that sum, and there is no prospect of increase. The average of fines is not expected to be more than £.250 for many years to come.	3,814
Bath & Wells	5,946	-- The net income is expected to be reduced to about £.5,500 per annum, by the probable diminution of fines upon renewals.	5,500
Bristol -	2,351	-- The average upon the three years ending 31st December 1831, much exceeds the usual average. The living of Almondsbury, permanently annexed to the See, is not expected to vary in amount.	2,350

	£.		£.
Carlisle -	2,213	-- From an unusual receipt of fines on renewal of leases for lives, the gross annual income of the See on the last Bishop's incumbency was about £.3,500. Upon some late surveys, the estimated annual value of the property has been less than on any former valuations; upon the whole, the gross yearly value of the See, which in 1832 was returned at £. 2,585, may be estimated, upon an average of seven years, at £.3,000. It should also be stated, that one-twentieth part of a sum of £.10,000 borrowed on mortgage for repairing and partly rebuilding Rose Castle, is payable yearly, with interest upon the remaining principal. The payments will cease in the year 1853.	3,000 after 1853.
Chester -	3,261	-- Decrease expected, as the property of the See chiefly consists of tithes, which are falling in value.	3,260
Chichester -	4,229	-- The average amount of fines on renewals for the three years ending 31st December 1831, was greater than the general average receipts under that head. It is considered that the computed average income will be reduced by £.400 or £.500 per annum.	3,800
St. David's -	1,897	-- The average yearly receipts from fines on renewals of leases for three years ending 31st December 1831, were £.214, whereas the average of the last 10 years is £.1,150 per annum; but this last-mentioned average cannot be depended upon in future.	2,800
Ely - -	11,105	-- The estimate of the last three years is rather more than the average amount of the net annual produce of the See, as the two last years, particularly 1830, afforded fines for renewals of leases which seldom occur.	11,000
Exeter -	2,713	-- There will in future be £.21 per annum from the dividends on stock produced by the sale of houses under a local Act. In other respects no increase or decrease is anticipated.	2,734
Gloucester -	2,282	-- A decrease in the revenues of this See will take place in consequence of the augmentations of small livings in the patronage of the See, made by the present Bishop. The amount of fines for renewals, included in this estimate, exceeds the average of the seven years preceding.	2,200
Hereford -	2,516	-- No expected increase or decrease - -	2,516
Lichfield and Coventry.	3,923	-- If the average of fines, as far as it can be ascertained from accessible documents, were to be taken upon a period of 21 years, it would exhibit a net income considerably larger than that which has been stated, but a material reduction of the future amount of fines is to be expected from the progressive diminution of the value of land; a decrease of the profits from woods is expected. The income will also be decreased by the augmentation of poor livings in the gift of the See intended to be made. Upon the whole, it is considered that at a distant period the net income may average £.4,350 per annum.	4,350

	£.		£.
Lincoln -	4,542	- - The estimate taken upon the three years ending 31st December 1831, exceeds the average of the three subsequent years, by the sum of £. 680. The property consists almost entirely of Impropriate Rectories, with dependent vicarages, the intended augmentations of which, in virtue of the late Acts, will cause a further considerable diminution of the net annual proceeds.	4,200
Llandaff -	924	- - It is considered that upon a sufficiently extended average, the income from fines, which is stated at £. 73, might be taken at £. 400 per annum; a corresponding increase of income is therefore expected.	1,250
Norwich -	5,395	- - The average amount of income taken upon the three years ending 31st December 1831, exceeds the average annual value of the revenues of the See, if computed upon the receipts for the last seven years, by the sum of £. 700 per annum; and there will be a reduction of income by the augmentation of small livings in the gift of the See.	4,700
Oxford -	2,648	- - A decrease in the revenues of the See must be expected. The average of fines on renewal of leases for the three years ending 31st December 1831, is found, on calculation, to exceed the average receipts from the same source, which may reasonably be expected for the future by about the sum of £. 1,060, and a deduction of £. 90 must be allowed for the depreciated value of tithes in hand. If the Crown shall be pleased to renew a lease granted on account of the small revenues of the See, which will expire in the year 1837, it is expected that, communibus annis, the net value of the See will amount to £. 1,658, or about that.	1,658, subject to the contingency stated in the preceding Column.
Peterborough	3,103	- - The total receipts may be expected to be less in future than the average of the three years ending in 1831, as the fines upon renewals of leases, as well as the tithes of Castor, a Rectory permanently annexed to the See, are continually decreasing in the amount.	3,000
Rochester -	1,459	No expected increase or decrease - - - -	1,459
Salisbury -	3,939	- - If the calculation were taken upon an average, embracing a period of years in which it is probable that most of the leases for lives, as well as for years, would be renewed, the result would exhibit a net income, communibus annis, of not less than £. 5,000, or between that sum and £. 6,000 per annum.	5,000
Worcester -	6,569	- - There is reason to expect a decrease of income from a diminution of the amount of fines upon renewal of leases.	6,500

Note.—The amounts given in this Table include the incomes of certain preferments, accustomably held in commendam by some of the Bishops, as well as those of permanent annexations to the See.

According to the foregoing Table, the net income of all the Bishoprics of England and Wales, in the year 1831, amounted, on an average of three years, to the sum of £. 157,737, and may now be calculated at about £. 148,875; but it appears that this amount is very unequally distributed, the incomes of one-half of the Bishoprics falling below the sum necessary to cover the expenses to which a Bishop is unavoidably subject. A different distribution of the Episcopal Revenues

Revenues is the natural remedy of this inconvenience. Incomes must also be provided for the two new Sees which are to be erected.

If the total amount of the net income of the Bishoprics, as stated in the second column of the preceding Table, had been liable to no further diminution, we apprehend that these objects might have been nearly accomplished by such a distribution, without any addition to those incomes, by means of commendams, either with or without cure of souls, the former of which additions we think ought to be altogether discontinued.

This might be done by enabling the future Incumbents of the richer Sees either to transfer part of the estates to the poorer Bishoprics, or to pay over annually a portion of their incomes to the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty, to be applied to the augmentation of such Bishoprics; or either of these modes might be adopted, according to the particular circumstances of each case.

The total amount, as above stated, cannot, however, be considered as the future income, for the reasons alleged in the third column, which shows a diminution of nearly £. 9,000 per annum; and a further diminution is also to be expected from the application, either in whole or in part, of Impropriations, which form a considerable portion of the incomes of many Bishoprics (and which in most instances they were compelled to accept in exchange for manors and estates), for the improvement of populous and poorly-endowed Vicarages and Curacies connected with them.

The total income of the Bishoprics in England and Wales will then no longer be sufficient to afford an adequate income to each Bishop, merely by a different distribution; and the most obvious mode of supplying the deficiency will be permanently to annex to some of the poorer Bishoprics certain Cathedral preferment, particularly in the Chapters of St. Paul's and Westminster, on account of their position in the Metropolis.

In considering the incomes of the Archbishops and Bishops, it is proper to advert, not only to the expenses necessarily incurred in journies, for the purposes of Confirmation, Consecration and other official duties; in maintaining ancient and extensive houses of residence; in keeping hospitality, and in contributing to all objects connected with Religion and Charity, in a manner suitable to their station; but to a burthen which presses heavily on newly-promoted Bishops, who are seldom men of wealth. The unavoidable expenses attending their appointment are so considerable, that they may be calculated at the income of one whole year in most of the Sees, and at much more than a year's income in the smaller ones.

Upon the whole, we are of opinion, that where the annual income of a Bishop amounts to £. 4,500, it is not necessary to make any addition, nor would we recommend any diminution, unless it exceed £. 5,500; but we think that the two Archbishoprics, and the Bishoprics of London, Durham and Winchester, ought to have a larger provision than the rest.

These arrangements, if carried into effect, will tend to promote the desirable object of diminishing the frequency of Translation.

III. Patronage.

If Your Majesty shall be pleased to concur in the suggestion for erecting two new Sees, it will, in our opinion, be expedient, for the interests of the Church, that the Bishops of those Sees shall possess a certain portion of Patronage, in order that they may be enabled to reward deserving Clergymen within their Dioceses. For this purpose, it will be necessary to transfer some Advowsons to the Bishops of the new Sees.

We do not propose that, when a District is transferred from one Diocese to another, the whole of the Patronage within such District should likewise pass; but in many instances a partial transfer will be desirable. We therefore humbly submit to Your Majesty the expediency of providing for all these cases, in any Legislative measure which may be founded upon this Report.

We respectfully beg it to be understood, that, in all the Proposals which we have submitted to Your Majesty, we assume that regard will be had to vested Interests, and that none of the proposed changes should take place with respect to Bishops or Incumbents now in possession, without their consent.

The subject alluded to at the commencement of our Report, as one to which we had given our attention out of its regular course, is that of a vacancy in one of the Prebendal Stalls in the Collegiate Church of Westminster, respecting which we at our first meeting received the following letter from the Chancellor of Your Majesty's Exchequer.

" My Lords and Gentlemen, Whitehall, February 4, 1835.

" I feel it to be my duty to inform you, that a vacancy having taken place in a Prebendal Stall at Westminster, I have advised His Majesty to suspend any appointment to that Stall, until the circumstances connected with it can undergo the inquiry and consideration of the Commission, of which you are members; and I have it in command from His Majesty to inform you, that He shall be prepared, so far as the Royal Prerogative is concerned, to make any arrangement, with respect to this preferment, which shall appear to the Commission best calculated to effect the important object for which the Commission was appointed, and in the successful prosecution of which His Majesty takes the deepest interest.

" I have the honour, &c.

(signed) " Robert Peel."

Impressed with this strong mark of the desire which Your Majesty entertains to forward the objects of this Commission, we proceeded without delay to consider of the best method of giving effect to Your Majesty's gracious intentions.

We ascertained, upon inquiry, that the Parish of St. Margaret, Westminster, which adjoins the Collegiate Church, has no individual Rector nor Vicar, but that the Dean and Chapter, who are the Rectors, are bound to provide for the Cure of Souls, which they generally do by committing it to one of their own body.

We further found that the Parish contained, according to the last Census, a Population of 25,334, and that besides the Parochial Church (of which a portion is devoted to the use of The House of Commons), it has no regular Place of Worship according to the rites of the Church of England. But there is a Chapel, called Broadway Chapel, capable of accommodating about 1,000 persons, which belongs to the Dean and Chapter, and is by them leased, at a nominal rent, to a Clergyman, who performs the duty and receives the Pew Rents, but has no parochial charge.

It appeared to us, therefore, that the vacant Stall could not be better applied than by making it subservient to the spiritual wants of this very populous and increasing Parish.

With this view, we propose that the Church of St. Margaret shall be permanently annexed to the vacant Stall in the Collegiate Church, and that a portion of the annual profits of the Stall shall be suffered to accumulate until a new Church be built, when the Parish shall be divided, and the Incumbent of the new Parish shall receive that annual portion; the accumulation being applied towards providing a Parsonage-house for such Incumbent.

We deemed it right to communicate to the Dean and Chapter our proposals on this head; and we have great satisfaction in stating to Your Majesty their prompt acquiescence, and their readiness to give up to Your Majesty the Patronage of St. Margaret's Church. They at the same time voluntarily offered to surrender, as far as the law would allow them, their property in Broadway Chapel, with a view of its becoming a Chapel of Ease to the Rectory of St. Margaret, with a certain District assigned to it. Should this arrangement take effect, it may be considered proper that a small portion of the income of the Stall should be appropriated to the Minister of Broadway Chapel.

We are proceeding with all diligence in our Inquiry respecting the other important subjects to which Your Majesty has been pleased to direct our attention; and shall forthwith take into our consideration the present State of the several Cathedral and Collegiate Churches in England and Wales, with the view of submitting to Your Majesty some measures, by which those foundations may be be made more conducive than they now are to the efficiency of the Established Church.

We cannot conclude this Report without gratefully acknowledging the additional proof of Your Majesty's anxiety to promote the important objects of this Commission which has been afforded in the communication of Your Majesty's intention to defer any nomination to the Prebendal Stall in the Cathedral of Canterbury, which has recently become vacant, until the circumstances connected with it shall have undergone our consideration.

We have the satisfaction of informing Your Majesty that the Lord Chancellor, and the Archbishops and Bishops, who are Members of this Commission, have signified to us their intention of pursuing, with regard to Ecclesiastical Preferments in their respective Patronage, not connected with the Cure of Souls, the same course which Your Majesty has been graciously pleased to adopt with regard to the Patronage of the Crown.

The appointment to a Prebendal Stall, which has recently become vacant at York, has accordingly been reserved by the Archbishop of York, until the Commissioners shall have had an opportunity of reporting their opinion as to the best arrangement that can be made with respect to it.

Your Majesty's gracious communication, acquainting us, that in the event of the avoidance of Bishoprics, or other preferments in the gift of the Crown, the holders of which may have in their patronage Dignities or Offices not connected with the Cure of Souls, Your Majesty will make such conditional appointments as shall reserve all such Dignities or Offices for the consideration of the Commissioners, will enable us to proceed in our inquiries with that caution and circumspection which it is so desirable to observe; and will, at the same time, preclude the possibility of any inconvenience from the delay which is inseparable from full and minute inquiry into matters so important and so various in respect to their local peculiarities.

* These Tables have been framed from the Returns made to the "Ecclesiastical Revenues" Commission, which are now in course of printing. These and other Returns vary as to the precise number of Benefices in each Diocese; but as the main object at present is to show a comparison between the existing and the proposed condition of the several Dioceses, the most important point is to have one uniform source of information; and minute accuracy, either as to the number of Benefices or the amount of Population in each case, is not considered essential. Such accuracy would, indeed, be rendered extremely difficult by the necessary interchanges which are proposed, of parts of counties, and of districts and parts of districts, in some cases according to the ecclesiastical, and in others according to the civil, divisions of the country. It is hoped that the nearest possible approximation has been arrived at which is consistent with these circumstances and with the present state of the Returns.

† The three parishes in the Scilly Isles, and their population, amounting to 2,465, are here added to the Diocese of Exeter (See Prop. 25 of the Report). These islands have not hitherto been reckoned as forming part of the Diocese, no Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction whatever having been exercised over them for many ages; although the rite of Confirmation, by the Bishop, was administered there in 1831.

SUPPLEMENTARY STATEMENTS.

It appears, by a communication from the Bishop of Chichester, that the average income of the see, during the three years ending Michaelmas 1834, has fallen short of the average of the three years ending in 1831, stated in the first Table, by more than £600.

A misunderstanding respecting the statement in the seventh column of the first Table, as to the see of Ely, has also been corrected by the explanation of the Bishop's receiver; from which it appears that in future years the average income, if calculated upon a period of sufficient extent, is not expected to exceed, but rather to fall below, £8,000 per annum; which has been about the average of the eighteen years ending 1832, when the return was made.

By a communication from the present Bishop of Bristol, it appears that the late Bishop (Dr. Gray, who made the return to the Commissioners) received £120 as a fine for leasing stables in College Green, and, in 1831, a fine of £4,480 for adding one life and exchanging another on a lease for three lives of the rectory and parsonage of Newchurch, in the Isle of Wight; on which two receipts, the average of the three years ending in 1831, as stated in the Table, was grounded. The Bishop is of opinion that that average much exceeds the general average of the income of the see arising from fines.

The Dean of Carlisle has stated that the profits of woods, returned by the Dean and Chapter as having averaged £253 per annum for the three years ending 1831, and so stated in the second Table, would not now average £100 per annum.

WHEREAS We have thought it expedient, for divers good causes and considerations Us thereunto moving, that a full and correct Inquiry should be forthwith made respecting the Revenues and Patronage belonging to the several Archiepiscopal and Episcopal Sees in England and Wales, to all Cathedral and Collegiate Churches, and to all Ecclesiastical Benefices, (including Donatives, Perpetual Curacies, and Chapelries,) with or without Cure of Souls, and the Names of the several Patrons thereof, and other circumstances therewith connected: KNOW YE that We, reposing great trust and confidence in your zeal, ability, and discretion, have authorized and appointed, and by these Presents do authorize and appoint you the said William Archbishop of Canterbury, Edward Archbishop of York, Henry Marquess of Lansdowne, Dudley Earl of Harrowby, Charles James Bishop of London, William Bishop of Durham, John Bishop of Lincoln, Christopher Bishop of Bangor, Charles Lord Tenterden, William Draper Lord Wynford, Sir Nicolas Conyngham Tindal, William Sturges Bourne, Henry Goulburn, Charles Watkin Williams Wynn, Sir John Nicholl, Sir Robert Harry Inglis, Edward John Littleton, Stephen Lushington, Thomas Gaisford, George Chandler, Christopher Wordsworth, Joseph Allen, Charles Thorp, and Hugh Chambre Jones, or any Three or more of you, to make a full and correct Inquiry respecting the Revenues and Patronage belonging to the several Archiepiscopal and Episcopal Sees, to all Cathedral and Collegiate Churches, and to all Ecclesiastical Benefices, (including Donatives, Perpetual Curacies, and Chapelries,) with or without Cure of Souls, in England and Wales, and the names of the several Patrons thereof, and other circumstances therewith connected.

AND for the better Discovery of the Truth in the Premises, We do by these Presents give and grant to you, or any Three or more of you, full Power and Authority to call before you, or any Three or more of you, such Persons as you shall judge necessary, by whom you may be the better informed of the Truth in the Premises; and to inquire of the Premises, and every part thereof, by all other lawful ways and means whatsoever: And We do hereby give and grant unto you, or any Three or more of you, full Power and Authority, when the same shall appear to be requisite, to administer an Oath or Oaths to any Person or Persons whatsoever to be examined before you, or any Three or more of you, touching or concerning the Premises: And We do also give and grant unto you, or any Three or more of you, full Power and Authority to cause all and singular the Officers, Clerks, Ministers, and others, attached to or connected with the said Sees, Cathedral and Collegiate Churches, and Ecclesiastical Benefices, having in their Custody any Rolls, Records, Orders, Books, Papers, or other Writings relating thereto, to bring and produce the same upon Oath before you, or any Three or more of you.

AND Our further Will and Pleasure is, that you, or any Three or more of you, upon due Examination of the Premises, do and shall, within the space of One Year after the date of this Our Commission, or sooner if the same can reasonably be, report to Us, under your hands and seals respectively, what you shall find touching or concerning the Premises upon such Inquiry as aforesaid: And We further will and command, and by these Presents ordain, that this Our Commission shall continue in full force and virtue, and that you Our Commissioners, or any Three or more of you, shall and may from time to time proceed in the Execution thereof, and of every matter and thing therein contained, although the same be not continued from time to time by Adjournment: And We do hereby direct and appoint that you, or any Three or more of you, may have liberty to report to Us your several Proceedings from time to time, as the same shall be respectively completed and perfected.

AND We hereby command all and singular Our Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Mayors, Bailiffs, Constables, Officers, Ministers, and all other Our loving Subjects whatsoever, as well within Liberties as without, that they be assistant to you and each of you in the Execution of these Presents.

AND for your assistance in the due Execution of this Our Commission, We have made choice of Our Trusty and Wellbeloved William Roberts, Esquire, to be Secretary to this Our Commission, and to attend you, whose Services and Assistance We require you to use from time to time, as occasion shall render necessary.

IN Witness whereof We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent.

Witness Ourself at Westminster, the twenty-third day of June, in the second year of Our Reign.

By Writ of Privy Seal,

BATHURST.

The above Commission was renewed for the term of another Year by Letters Patent, dated the fifteenth day of July, in the fourth year of His Majesty's Reign, and extended to the Islands of Jersey and Guernsey, and the Isle of Man.

And by Letters Patent, dated the fifth day of July, in the fifth year of His Majesty's Reign, the same Commission was prolonged for the term of another Year from the date thereof.

REPORT

THE COMMISSIONERS APPOINTED BY HIS MAJESTY

TO INQUIRE INTO

THE ECCLESIASTICAL REVENUES

OF

ENGLAND AND WALES.

TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

YOUR MAJESTY having been pleased to issue a Commission under the Great Seal, dated the 23rd day of June, in the second year of Your Majesty's reign, authorizing and directing the Commissioners therein named to make a full and correct Inquiry respecting the Revenues and Patronage belonging to the several Archiepiscopal and Episcopal Sees in England and Wales, to all Cathedral and Collegiate Churches, and to all Ecclesiastical Benefices, (including Donatives, Perpetual Curacies and Chapelries,) with or without Cure of Souls, and the names of the several Patrons thereof, and other circumstances connected therewith:

And Your Majesty having been further pleased, on the expiration of the said Commission, to issue a Second Commission, extending the period within which the said Commissioners were required to make their final Report, and authorizing them to extend their Inquiries to the Islands of Jersey and Guernsey, and the Isle of Man; in virtue of which Commissions, we transmitted to the several Archbishops and Bishops, Deans and Chapters, and other Ecclesiastical Corporations, aggregate and sole, and the several Incumbents of Benefices, and other Ecclesiastical Preferments, certain Inquiries concerning their respective Revenues and other circumstances connected therewith; and, having obtained by means thereof the most satisfactory information that could within the time allotted to us be procured, made such a Report of the total Income of the Church as our materials then enabled us to frame, in anticipation of a more complete and elaborate statement which we were then preparing to be founded upon a more detailed examination and Inquiry:

And Your Majesty having been pleased still further to extend the duration of the said Commission, for the purpose of enabling the said Commissioners to complete their Inquiries;

We Your Majesty's Commissioners, whose hands and seals are hereunto set, humbly report to Your Majesty, that having, in obedience to Your Majesty's commands completed such Inquiries, we have embodied the results thereof in several Tabular statements, and other documents contained in the Appendix to this Report, which we now proceed to lay before Your Majesty, premising that all the Returns of Income have been made upon an Average of Three Years, ending the 31st of December, 1831, except where a departure from that rule has been rendered necessary by the particular circumstances of the case.

THE TABLE, NUMBERED I., relates wholly to the ARCHIEPISCOPAL AND EPISCOPAL SEES, wherein are stated in successive columns the sources and amounts of the gross and net Revenues of the same respectively, and of all Preferments permanently or accustomably annexed to the See; the expectation of an increase or decrease of such Income; the temporary Charges affecting the same; and the several Preferments enjoyed by the Archbishops and Bishops respectively.

The Sum set down in the column for the Payments, considered as deductions from the gross income of the Archbishops and Bishops, consists of the Visitation expenses, salaries to bailiffs and other officers; agency in collecting rents tithes, and other dues; rates and taxes on tithes; Curates' salaries, and repairs of Houses on annexed Preferments; tenths, fee-farm rents, and other charges on the Estates; expenses of holding Courts, of surveys and valuations, and of management generally; and such miscellaneous and contingent expenses affecting the sources of Income and lessening its clear amount as are reducible to an annual average, not including, among such outgoings, the repairs of the Houses in which the several Prelates reside.

Neither in this Table, nor in those which follow, relating to the Deans and Chapters, sole Corporations, Dignitaries, and the Clergy in general, has any deduction been made on account of incidental expenses, such as contributions and payments towards the support of Schools and other local Charities, and which fall heavier upon Clerical Incomes than upon those of any other class of proprietors possessing the same amount of revenue.

THE TABLE, NUMBERED II., exhibits the Incomes, Gross and Net, of all the CATHEDRAL AND COLLEGIATE CHURCHES, with the sources from which such incomes are derived, and the mode of their application and distribution. The same Table contains columns in which are stated the probable increase or decrease of the Revenues, the temporary Charges, the condition of the Fabric, and the number of persons of which the Chapter or Corporation is composed, and whether they have any and what separate Revenues; as also, the number of spiritual persons belonging to each Cathedral and Collegiate Church, and the payments made to them out of the funds of the Corporation. It contains also similar statements with respect to the minor Ecclesiastical Corporations, existing in some Cathedral Churches under various denominations.

The Gross Revenue is the aggregate amount of the several sources of income set forth in the Table; and the Net is that sum reduced by the payments necessary or incidental to the maintenance of the Establishment; all payments and allowances to spiritual members being considered as included in, and making a part of, such Net Revenue.

Where no stipends or allowances are paid to such spiritual members, the whole Net Revenue is generally divided among the members of the Chapter; and where any such stipends or allowances are paid out of the Net Revenue to spiritual members, the surplus, after such payments, may be properly considered as the divisible amount; but it frequently happens that the persons among whom that amount is to be divided, voluntarily give up a certain portion of it for purposes of a charitable nature, or to meet extraordinary charges for the repairs or embellishments of the sacred edifice, which are not reckoned among the regular and constant outgoings, but which, when taken into account, will explain how it happens that the sum, actually divided among the members of the Chapter, is often less than the Net Income reduced by the payments of stipends and allowances to spiritual members. It is in this way, for instance, that the Chapter of the Cathedral of Canterbury account for the reduced amount of the sum actually divided among the members of that body.

In a few cases the sum, stated to be divided among the members of the Chapter, exceeds the average amount of the Net Revenue for the three years referred to in the Table; a difference which seems to arise from the particular mode in which the accounts of the Establishment are kept and settled; such accounts being sometimes carried over a longer period than that which is comprehended in the statement on the Table, and grounded on a more extended average; and sometimes reckoning as part of the divisible amount sums due, though not actually received till after the expiration of the three years in question.

The sum set down in the column for the Payments, considered as deductions from the Gross Income of the Cathedral and Collegiate Churches, consists of salaries and annuities to the officers and servants of the Establishments; tenths, rates, and taxes; ordinary repairs of the Cathedrals and Churches, and, in many cases, of the Houses of the Dignitaries; expenses of holding Courts, costs of surveys and valuations, and of management generally; charges and incumbrances upon the tithes and other revenues; and such miscellaneous and contingent expenses as are reducible to an average annual amount.

Some of the Cathedral and Collegiate Churches are of great antiquity; and besides a constant annual outlay for their support, require occasionally an extraordinary expenditure for their repair or restoration; the provisions for which are of various kinds. In some cases certain Estates or Funds are specially appropriated to this object; in others, the expenses of repairs are defrayed out of the general Revenues; and sometimes, as has been already intimated, the members of the Chapter assist the funds by a special contribution from their dividends, for the purpose of effecting some particular object of improvement. By the application of the supplies, drawn from these different sources, the Cathedral and Collegiate Churches are, for the most part, well sustained and preserved throughout that part of Your Majesty's dominions to which our Commission extends.

We believe that we are justified in expressing an opinion, that since the year 1800 a larger sum has been expended in the restoration and repairs of Cathedral Churches, than had been laid out upon the same objects during the whole of the preceding century.

The expectation of future increase or decrease of Revenue is stated by the several Deans and Chapters, and other Corporations, with the reasons on which such expectation is grounded; and in the same column of the Table, where it has been thought that the average of Fines taken on the three years (to which, on account of the general difficulty of embracing a longer period, our Inquiries have been limited) would present an incorrect view of the Revenues of the Establishment, the probable future income has been computed upon a more extended average.

The Revenues of the Cathedral and Collegiate Churches appear, by the statements on the several Returns respecting their future prospects, to be generally tending towards decrease; and this tendency has been in many instances promoted by the augmentations of the poorer Livings in their patronage. It is obvious, also, that the incomes of these Corporations, being principally dependent on the Rents or Fines obtained for their estates in Land, or Impropriate Tithes, must have experienced a depression in common with all descriptions of agricultural property.

THE TABLE, NUMBERED III., contains a Statement of the SEPARATE INCOMES of the SPIRITUAL MEMBERS of Cathedral and Collegiate Churches, enjoyed by them in right of their several dignities or preferments; with an account of the several sources from which such separate Revenues are derived; excluding all shares, stipends, and allowances to which they may be entitled as members of such Cathedral or Collegiate Churches out of the Corporate estates or funds of the same.

It is well known that Fines, for the renewals of Leases upon lives or years, constitute the principal, and, in most cases, the only substantial emolument arising out of the separate estates of such last-mentioned Dignitaries; and it is obvious that the period of three years does not afford a satisfactory average as to the produce of such Fines. An average taken upon a very long period was requisite to show the general amount, communibus annis, of the Income of the particular Dignity or Preferment; and this it was found impossible to obtain from the several Incumbents, who have rarely been in possession for a sufficient length of time to afford the necessary data, and are generally ignorant of the number and amount of the Fines received by their predecessors. It has therefore been considered as most satisfactory to state the annual Income of each individual independently of his Fines; and, in a column immediately following that in which the Net Income is stated, to show what each has received for a Fine or Fines within the given period of three years, ending in 1831. The sum of all these Fines, divided by three, gives the average amount for each of the said three years, and the same has been added to the gross and net amounts of annual income made up from the other sources. Dividing these totals by the number of those persons who in right of their Prebends or Dignities have separate Revenues, we obtain the average annual sum which the aggregate amount would allow for each of such persons.

This Table includes only such Prebendaries, or Dignitaries, as have separate estates belonging to their Prebends or Dignities, independently of any interest which they may have in any corporate estates or funds belonging to the Cathedral or Collegiate Churches of which they are members; and where any such spiritual person, besides his separate estate, has an interest in the revenues or funds of any Corporation Aggregate, he is distinguished in this Table by the letters "C. A." added to his name.

As the answers to our Inquiries, respecting the probable increase or decrease in the future amount of these separate Revenues, were too vague and uncertain to furnish grounds for a satisfactory or useful Statement, no column has been assigned to that head in the Third Table.

The Sums which are inserted in the column of this Table, as deductions from the gross Income of these Dignitaries of Cathedral and Collegiate Churches, consist of tenths, pensions, Cathedral dues, agency, and rates and assessments upon their Estates; and, with respect to the Archdeacons, of the necessary expenses incidental to their Visitations, and the exercise of their respective Jurisdictions.

The Benefices and Preferments in the patronage of the Archbishops and Bishops, of the Cathedral and Collegiate Churches, and of the several ecclesiastical members of such Establishments having separate Revenues in right of their several Dignities, are contained in a distinct document, as the specification of them could not be comprehended within the limits of either of the three first Tables.

The Gross and Net Incomes, with other particulars, of the parochial and other BENEFICES, with and without Cure of Souls, in England and Wales, make the subject of a FOURTH TABULAR STATEMENT, which includes all such Benefices as are held temporarily in commendam, but not such as are statutably or accustomably annexed to superior preferments; the Incomes of such Benefices being returned with the Incomes of those Preferments, and entered in the proper Tables.

Under each Diocese are included the Peculiars of the Bishop of that Diocese.

During the period which has elapsed since the first Returns were received, many changes of Incumbency have taken place by deaths, resignations, or cessions, which events, in a great number of cases, have of course not come within our knowledge; but, wherever such an event has been made known to us, the same has been noticed.

The difficulty of ascertaining to whom the Patronage belongs will account for the occasional omission of the name of the Patron.

In many cases our Inquiry respecting the Impropriator has not been answered, so as to enable us to insert the name in the column for that entry. The Incumbent, to whom that Inquiry has been addressed, may be supposed to have been often unable to give the information required; or the Title may have been in dispute. From such imperfect materials as were obtained, two Tables have been framed, showing in what numerical proportions the Patronage and Impropriations of the several Benefices are divided among the different denominations and classes of proprietors.

Where a Vicarage is partially endowed with the great tithes, it has been so expressed, by way of distinction or exception, in the Impropriation column. And in some cases, though of rare occurrence, the whole or part of the great tithes of a Rectory belong, not to the Incumbent Rector, but to a Lay Impropriator, who appears as such on the Table.

We have felt it expedient to inquire into the amount of the population comprised within the limits of each Benefice, as the Census of 1831 gives only the population of the Parish or Township. Although Rectories and Vicarages are generally co-extensive with the Parishes or Townships where they are situate, yet in many cases it is otherwise; so that, in order to ascertain the population of a particular Benefice, it has been frequently necessary to subtract the total population of the Chapelries, or Benefices, which are comprehended within it, from the total population of the principal place; for which purpose it has been necessary to ascertain the distinct population of each smaller place: and, as a Chapelry within a Parish sometimes includes a certain number of Townships, we have ascertained, by the Census, the population of such Townships, and added them together, in order to arrive at that of the Benefice. In many cases, where there has been no Ecclesiastical district assigned to a Church or Chapel, the Incumbent has returned the surrounding inhabitancy, within a certain distance from the Chapel, (there being no other Church within a convenient distance,) as its appropriate population; and such amount of population has been adopted in the Table. Extraparochial places are frequently within the limits of the Benefice, but not included in the Return which the Census makes for the Parish; and sometimes cottages on commons are dubiously situated with respect to Parishes, but decidedly within the limits of a particular Benefice.

It may be further observed, independently of these grounds of discrepancy, there is frequently a considerable difference in the amounts returned to our Inquiries by the Incumbents, and those given by the Census, even where they relate to the same local limits. Where the Incumbent has stated the amount to be about, or nearly, or above, or below such a number, the Census has always been resorted to, and the amount has been given as there stated, where the Returns have reference to the same extent of boundary; and so, also, where it appears that the Incumbent has stated the amount conjecturally, or in round numbers.

In answer to our Inquiries respecting Church accommodation, the Incumbents have in many instances stated both the actual accommodation, and the number for which the Church might be made to afford room; in which cases the actual accommodation has been set down, except that, where the Church might be made to contain a greater number by filling up the vacant room with benches, or by some slight difference in the arrangement of the pews, it has been thought proper to state the capacity of the Church, rather than its existing means of accommodation.

Glebe Houses have been set down as fit for residence in all cases where they are actually occupied by the Incumbent, although they may have been returned as in bad repair; but where a Glebe House has appeared to be in a dilapidated condition, or insufficient for the accommodation of a Clergyman and his family, from the want of room and proper offices, it has been considered as unfit.

A Table has been added showing the number of cases in which the Glebe House is fit for residence, the number in which it is unfit, and the number in which there is no Glebe House.

Pew Rents, though a very variable and uncertain source of Income, have nevertheless been treated as Ecclesiastical Revenue, wherever the amount has been ascertained; and it is to be observed that in those Benefices, which have of late years come into existence under the Church Building Acts, or by the operation of other causes, the pew rents constitute the sole or principal support of the Minister.

We have not considered mere voluntary payments, collections, or contributions, which may be withdrawn at pleasure, as forming any part of the property of the Church; nor have we taken notice of unconsecrated Proprietary Chapels.

There are cases, in which the Parish Church is also the Chapel of some establishment not strictly ecclesiastical, and where the Minister derives nearly all his support from the income paid him in his capacity of Chaplain to such Establishment; in such cases we have only inserted in the Table such part of his income as accrues to him in his capacity of parochial Minister.

With respect to the incomes of Benefices derived from Land or Tithes, where allowances or abatements have been made to the tenants of the Land, or to the tithe-payers, on the expressed ground that the rent or composition was too high, according to the value of agricultural produce, we have regarded the amount actually received as the proper income; but where a part has been returned, in consideration of an accidental failure of the crops, or where the rent or compositions have been received, and a part afterwards given back, from which it might be inferred that the Incumbent did not mean to lower his income permanently; or where the Incumbent has treated the deficiencies as arrears, the amount demandable according to the previous settlement, or agreement between the parties, has been considered as the real income.

Where a certain deficiency has been constantly recurring, and the Incumbent himself has not contemplated the recovery of his dues as possible, but rather expects a further depression, such deficiency has been considered as so far reducing the actual income of the Living.

If the income has been reduced since the year 1831 by the failure or defalcation of some of its sources, or by the reduction of rent, or by fresh agreements for the composition of tithes, such reductions have been considered as having a permanent character; and the amount of income has been stated with reference to such subsequent reduction, the three years' average to 1831 being considered as applicable to a continuing, though variable income.

In setting down the sums in the Tables, it has been thought inexpedient to notice fractional amounts, except in the case of mortgages and other charges upon the Benefices.

Where the Glebe House and premises, whether fit or unfit, are let by the Incumbent, the rent has not been considered as part of the gross Income; since, if it were so considered, it would appear upon the Table that the Incumbent had the Glebe House, and also the annual sum received as rent for it; besides which, it has appeared to us that the Glebe House and Premises could not properly be considered as a legitimate source of Income.

With respect to the deductions to be made from the gross income, the following course has been taken:—Poor-rates upon the Land, and upon the Tithes, and Repairs done upon the Farms and Lands, as affecting the sources of Income, and not connected with its enjoyment and expenditure, and also the Repairs of Chancels, have been considered as proper to be deducted from the Gross, in ascertaining the Net Income; but no deduction has been made in respect of Rates paid upon Glebe Houses or Offices, or any Repairs of the same. The other deductions have been the tax upon the Land, the expense of collecting Rents or compositions, payments for labour where Tithes are taken in kind, tenths, synodals, procurations, and visitation Fees. There are a great many outgoings which it has been impossible to take account of in the Table, being only occasional, and therefore not admitting of an average, such as calls for subscriptions towards draining and embanking. Where, however, the lands appear to be so circumstanced as to call for a regular annual outlay for the support of banks or drains, such payments have been considered as proper deductions.

In the column for the Curates' Stipends, money payments only could be put down, which include the fees where the amount is stated, and where they make a part of the remuneration; but it is to be observed that in a great number of cases the remuneration consists partly of money, and partly of certain allowances and advantages, as the occupation of land, or the use of a house or furniture, without paying rent for the same.

Where the Curate was stated to us to be wholly, or in part, paid by the Bishop, or by any municipal body, or by parochial or voluntary contributions, and such payments are made immediately to him, and not in the first place to the Incumbent, so as nominally to form part of the income of such Incumbent, such circumstance is noticed in the proper column.

The letter "A" is added to denote an assistant Curate, where the Incumbent is resident, in which case the stipend is not fixed by Act of Parliament; and it may be observed, that in many cases where the stipend assigned appears to be small, the Curate is either the Incumbent, or serves the Cure, of a neighbouring Benefice. A Clergyman employed by the Incumbent temporarily, or occasionally, or by the week, has not been considered as a Curate.

Where a Curate receives a stipend for officiating at more than one Benefice held by the same Incumbent, notice is taken of it where his stipend is first mentioned.

The Curate sometimes appears to have received no salary, but some allowances or advantages in lieu of salary. In such a case, if he has been licensed at a certain stipend, such stipend has been considered as his proper remuneration, and the same has accordingly been inserted in the Table.

Under the column for Mortgages and temporary Charges, all sums borrowed from Queen Ann's Bounty fund, under the Act commonly called "Gilbert's Act," have been set down according to the entries respecting them at the Bounty Office. Where they have not been borrowed from the Governors of Queen Ann's Bounty, they have been stated according to the information given by the parties.

Where the Mortgage has not been made under Gilbert's Act, but under some enclosure or other local Act, the sum borrowed occurs in its proper column, and the termination of the charge is stated to be uncertain. If the borrowing has not been under any Act of Parliament, so as to charge the Living generally, it has not been noticed.

In Jersey and Guernsey the Benefices are merely nominal Rectories, the Incumbent not being entitled in any case to more than a portion, generally one-third, of the great tithes, the Crown or Governor taking the residue; and in some cases the whole goes to the Crown or Governor.

Prior to the Reformation, the Norman Abbots were the Patrons of the Livings in Jersey, and the whole of the Tithes of the Parishes of St. Peter, Trinity, St. John's, St. Owen, St. Lawrence and St. Saviour's, five-sixths of St. Brelade's, two-thirds of St. Mary's, three-fifths of St. Clement's, two-fifths of St. Martin's, eleven-twelfths of Grouville, and nine-tenths of St. Helier's, were divided among certain Abbots and Bishops of Normandy, and the remaining fractions were apportioned among the Rectors of the several Parishes. Since the Reformation, the great tithes and the rents of Church Lands, which used to be transmitted to Normandy, have become Droits of the Crown.

The Governor of Jersey is the Patron of the Churches as the Grantee of Your Majesty's Patrimonial Revenues in that Island, and presents to the vacant Livings; but, by the Ecclesiastical Canons of the Island of Jersey, established by King James the First in 1621, pluralities in the Island were disallowed.

Among so many thousand Returns, it was to be expected that a large number would be defective in some material points; and much interruption has been occasioned to the course of our Inquiry by the frequent necessity that has arisen therefrom for correspondence with the parties.

We have also prepared a Tabular Summary of the number of Benefices in each Diocese returned to us; the total amount of Incomes, gross and net, of the Incumbents in each Diocese; also, the averages of each respectively; the number of Curates in each Diocese; the total amount of their stipends, and the average thereof. And we have also added four Scales of the Incomes of the Beneficed Clergy; the first advancing by £10 at each step of the Scale to £200, the second by £20 to £500, the third by £50 to £1,000, the fourth by £100 to £2,000, and from thence by £500 to £4,000 and upwards, there being only two above the last-mentioned amount.

We have further added a Tabular Statement of the Sinecure Rectories returned to us, (Sixty-two in number,) by which it appears that the gross annual revenues thereof amount to £18,622, affording an average of £300; and that the net annual revenues thereof amount to £17,095, affording an average of £275. The Sinecure Rectories not returned are four in number.

From the Returns to our Inquiries, arranged and digested in the Tabular Statements before mentioned, it appears that the total amount of the gross annual Revenues of the several Archiepiscopal and Episcopal Sees in England and Wales is £181,631, affording an average of £6,727; and the total amount of the net annual Revenues of the same is £160,292, affording an average of £5,936.

The total amount of the gross annual Revenues of the several Cathedral and Collegiate Churches in England and Wales is £284,241, and the total amount of the net annual Revenues of the same is £208,289.

The total amount of the gross annual separate Revenues of the several Dignitaries and other spiritual persons, members of the Cathedral and Collegiate Churches in England and Wales is £75,854: and the total amount of the net annual separate Revenues of the same is £66,465.

The total number of Benefices, with and without Cure of Souls, the Incumbents whereof have made Returns to our Inquiries, omitting those which are permanently or accustomably annexed to superior preferments, and which are included in the statements respecting those preferments, is 10,540. The total amount of the gross annual Revenues of these Benefices is £3,197,225, giving an average Income of £303; and the total amount of the net annual Revenues of the same is £3,004,721, giving an average Income of £285.

The total number of Benefices, with and without Cure of Souls, in England and Wales, including those not returned to us, but exclusive of those annexed to other preferments, (about twenty-four in number,) is 10,718, the total gross Income of which, calculated upon the average of those returned, will be £3,251,159, and the total net Income thereof will be £3,055,451.

The total number of Curates returned to us as employed by resident Incumbents is 1,006, whose annual Stipends or Payments in Money amount to £87,075, affording an average of £86. Those employed by non-resident Incumbents are 4,224; the amount of their Stipends £337,620; and the average £79. And the average of the whole of the Curates' Stipends is £81.

Before we conclude our Report, we deem it incumbent upon us to observe, that the expenses bearing upon the Incomes of the Clergy, of every class, are by no means confined to those already enumerated. The Archbishops and Bishops, in addition to the payment of Fees, First Fruits, and other charges incident to the taking possession of their preferments, are subject to heavy expenses for the support and reparation of their Houses of residence. All the Beneficed Clergy are liable, in a greater or less degree, to similar charges. On the Archdeacons, who are among the most useful and efficient officers of the Church, the supervision of their Archdeaconries, sometimes extending over a very large territory, entails, in many cases, an expenditure exceeding the whole emoluments of their office; and their costs and charges for First Fruits and Fees of admission generally exceed the amount of their receipts for the first two or three years after their entering into office. This last observation applies to many Prebendaries and other Dignitaries of Cathedral and Collegiate Churches.

The Arrears due to the Beneficed Clergy are in many instances very considerable. These, however, are not deducted in the statement of their incomes upon the Table.

All which we humbly submit to Your Majesty's consideration.

6. EXPECTED INCREASE OR DECREASE (If any) OF INCOME.	7. TEMPORARY CHARGES UPON THE REVENUES, Payable out of No. 5, And the time when the same will cease.	8. OTHER ECCLESIASTICAL PREFERMENTS Annexed to the Bishoprick, or held by the Bishop in commendam.
Expected increase of £1,544, shown by the following statement:— From fines, £1,366; and from diminution of the expenses of repairs of farm-buildings, £400 . . . £. 1,766 Deduct therefrom, in respect of yearly allowance to be henceforth made to lessees of estates of the See for reversionary augmentations, to the amount of £1,040 per annum, granted by the Archbishop to poor livings in the patronage of the See . . . 222 £,1544	A mortgage of £60,000, made by virtue of an Act of Parliament for rebuilding Lambeth Palace and making additions to the mansion at Addington, 1-40th part of the principal to be repaid every year, with interest at £4 per cent on the principal sum remaining unpaid. The fixed yearly instalment of principal is £1,500; the interest, at present, is about £2,280 per annum, making together a yearly payment of £3,780. The interest will gradually decrease, viz. at the rate of £60 every year. Last yearly payment in respect of £25,000 will be in 1871 —— 25,000 —— 1872 —— 10,000 —— 1873	. . . .
The annual average amount of fines on renewals, for the three years ending the 31st of December, 1831, exceeded, from particular circumstances, the usual average by at least £2,000; and there will be a further decrease of about 20 per cent. in the amount of the proceeds of the estates generally, from the diminution of the value of agricultural produce. The income of the see will also be further reduced by augmentations of the small livings, in the patronage of the Archbishop, about to be made, in addition to those already granted.	. . . .	. . . .
The far greater part of the income of the See arises from tithes; which have been gradually declining since the year 1827, when they amounted to £6,636. By a supplemental statement it appears, that the produce of the tithes was, in 1834, £5,214, which is below the average of the tithes, for the three years ending in 1831, by the sum of £607; and that the produce of the mines was, in the same year, £263, which is less than the same average by the sum of £415; showing the income for the year 1834 to be below the average income stated, by the sum of £1,022; and there seems to be no prospect of improvement.	. . . .	Archdeaconry of St. Asaph, and rectory of Pennant, county of Montgomery, and diocese of St. Asaph, accustomably held in commendam.
By a supplemental statement, it appears that the tithes, in the years 1833 and 1834, have fallen below the average of the three years ending 1831, by £650, or about that sum; and there is no prospect of increase. The average of fines is expected to be not more than £250 for many years to come.	. . . .	Archdeaconries of Bangor and Anglesey, with the rectory of Llangistriolus, county of Anglesey, diocese of Bangor, permanently annexed. The rectories of Llandyrnog, county of Denbigh, and Llanddyfnan, county of Anglesey, diocese of Bangor, accustomably held in commendam.
The net income is expected to be reduced to about £5,500 per annum, by the probable diminution of fines upon renewals.	. . . .	. . . .
The average upon the three years ending 31st December, 1831, much exceeds the estimated usual average. The living of Almondsbury is not expected to vary in amount.	. . . .	Vicarage of Almondsbury, county of Gloucester, diocese of Bristol, permanently annexed. Prebend in Durham cathedral, in commendam.
From an unusual receipt of fines on the renewals of leases for lives, the gross annual income of the See, on the last Bishop's incumbency, was about £3,500; upon some late surveys and valuations of estates for the renewals of leases, the estimated annual value of the property has been less than former valuations. Upon the whole the gross yearly value of the See may be estimated, upon an average of seven years, at £3,000.	A mortgage for £10,000, under an Act of Parliament for repairing and partly rebuilding Rose Castle: principal to be paid off at 5 per cent., with interest upon the remaining principal at 4 per cent., which payments will cease in the year 1853.	Chancellorship of Salisbury cathedral, and a prebend in St. Paul's cathedral, in commendam.

annexed to the See, or accustomably held therewith.

6. EXPECTED INCREASE OR DECREASE (If any) OF INCOME.	7. TEMPORARY CHARGES UPON THE REVENUES, Payable out of No. 5, And the time when the same will cease.	8. OTHER ECCLESIASTICAL PREFERMENTS Annexed to the Bishoprick, or held by the Bishop in commendam.
Decrease expected, as the property of the See chiefly consists of tithes, which are falling in value.	. . . .	Rectory of Waverton, county and diocese of Chester, permanently annexed. Prebend in Durham cathedral, in commendam.
The average amount of fines, on renewals, for the three years ending 31st December, 1831, was greater than the general average receipts under that head. It is considered that the average on which the whole income has been computed should be reduced by £400 or £500 per annum.	. . . .	. . . .
The average yearly receipts from fines on renewals of leases, for the three years ending 31st December, 1831, was, as appears in this table, £214, whereas the average of the last ten years is £1,150 per annum, but this last-mentioned average cannot be depended upon in future.	. . . .	Deanery and treasurership of the collegiate church of Brecon, permanently annexed. Deanery of Durham, in commendam.
No accurate judgment can be formed as to the future average amount of fines on the renewals of leases of mines and quarries, as the profits attending them must depend principally upon the several districts in which the collieries will be worked. Since making this return the Bishop has granted permanent augmentations to small livings in his patronage, to the amount of £1,170 per annum, out of the revenues of the See. No other ground for expecting increase or decrease.	. . . .	. . . .
The estimate of the last three years is rather more than the average amount, communibus annis, of the net annual produce of the See; as the two last years, particularly 1830, afforded fines for renewals of leases which seldom occur.	. . . .	. . . .
There will be in future £21 per annum from the dividends on stock produced by the sale of houses under a local Act. In other respects there is no reason to anticipate any considerable increase or decrease.	. . . .	Rectory of Shobrook, in the county of Devon, and diocese of Exeter, permanently annexed. Treasurership of, and prebend in Exeter cathedral, accustomably held in commendam. Prebend in Durham cathedral, in commendam.
A decrease in the revenues of this See will take place, in consequence of the augmentations of small livings in the patronage of the See, made by the present bishop. The amount of fines for renewals here given, exceeds the average of the seven years preceding.	. . . .	Prebend in the collegiate church of St. Peter's, Westminster, and rectory of Peakirk, county of Northampton, diocese of Peterborough, in commendam.
No expected increase or decrease.	. . . .	. . . .
If the average of fines, as far as it can be ascertained from accessible documents, were to be taken upon a period of twenty-one years, it would exhibit a net income considerably larger than that which has been stated; but a material reduction of the future amount of fines is to be expected from the progressive diminution of the value of the lands. A decrease of the profits from woods is also expected. The income will also be decreased by the augmentation of poor livings in the gift of the See intended to be made. Upon the whole, it is considered that at a distant period the net income may average £4,350 per annum.	. . . .	Prebend of Eccleshall permanently annexed. Prebend in the collegiate church of St. Peter's, Westminster, in commendam.
The estimate taken upon the three years ending 31st December, 1831, exceeds the general average by the sum of £680; viz. in respect of fines by £623, and in respect of lands, &c. at rack rents by £57. The property consists almost entirely of impropriate rectories with dependent vicarages, the intended augmentations of which, in virtue of the late Act, will cause a further considerable diminution of the net annual proceeds.	. . . .	Prebend of Buckden, in Lincoln cathedral, permanently annexed.

6. EXPECTED INCREASE OR DECREASE (If any) OF INCOME.	7. TEMPORARY CHARGES UPON THE REVENUES, Payable out of No. 5, And the time when the same will cease.	8. OTHER ECCLESIASTICAL PREFERMENTS Annexed to the Bishoprick, or held by the Bishop in commendam.
It is considered that, upon a sufficiently extended average, the income from fines might be taken at £400 per annum; a corresponding increase of income is therefore expected.	. . . .	Treasurership of Llandaff annexed to the bishoprick. Rectory of Bedwas, county of Monmouth, diocese of Llandaff, accustomably held in commendam. Deanery of St. Paul's, in commendam.
It is expected, that there will be a decrease in the future average income arising from fines upon renewals of leases for lives, and from woods and manorial profits, to the amount together of £1,725; and a further decrease from intended augmentations of the livings in the patronage of the See, in addition to those already made.	A mortgage for £10,000, made by virtue of an Act of Parliament for rebuilding London House; by virtue whereof 1-20th part (£500) is payable every year, with interest on the principal from time to time remaining unpaid. The last yearly payment will be in 1839.	. . . .
The average amount of income taken upon the three years, ending 31st December, 1831, exceeds the average annual value of the revenues of the See, if computed upon the receipts for the last seven years, by the sum of £700 per annum; and there will be a reduction of income by the augmentation of small livings in the gift of the See.	. . . .	. . . .
A decrease in the revenues of the See must be expected. The average of fines, on renewals of leases for the three years, ending 31st December, 1831, is found, on calculation, to exceed the average receipts from the same source, which may reasonably be expected for the future, by about the sum of £1,060; and a deduction of £90 must be allowed for the depreciated value of land and tithes in hand. If the Crown shall be pleased to renew a lease, granted on account of the small revenues of the See, and which will expire in the year 1837, it is expected that, communibus annis, the net yearly value of the See will amount to £1,658, or about that sum.	. . . .	Vicarage of Cuddesden, county and diocese of Oxford, permanently annexed. Deanery of Canterbury; rectory of Blithfield, and rectory of Leigh, county of Stafford, diocese of Lichfield and Coventry, in commendam.
The total receipts of the bishoprick may be expected to be less in future than the average of the three years ending in 1831; as the fines upon renewals of leases, as well as the tithes of Castor, are continually decreasing in amount.	. . . .	Rectory of Castor, county of Northampton, diocese of Peterborough, permanently annexed.
No expected increase or decrease.	. . . .	Deanery of Worcester cathedral; and rectory of Bishopsbourne, county of Kent, diocese of Canterbury, in commendam.
If the calculation were taken upon an average, embracing a period of years in which it is probable that most of the leases for lives as well as for years would be renewed, the result would exhibit a net income, communibus annis, of not less than £5,000, or between that sum and £6,000 per annum.	. . . .	Prebend in Salisbury cathedral, permanently annexed.
The augmentations already made of small livings in the patronage of the See will reduce the annual income by the amount of about £400. It is intended further to augment all the small livings in the gift of the See to £200 per annum. Except in respect of these augmentations, there are no grounds for expecting that the future income will vary materially from the sum stated in column 5.	. . . .	. . . .
There is reason to expect a decrease of income from a diminution of the amount of fines upon renewals of leases.	. . . .	. . . .
No expected increase or decrease.	. . . .	Prebend in Salisbury cathedral; and rectories of Great Horkesley and Alphamston, county of Essex, diocese of London, in commendam.

7. EXPECTED INCREASE OR DECREASE (If any) OF INCOME.	8. TEMPORARY CHARGES On the Revenues of the Corporate Body, payable out of the Net Yearly Income stated in No. 6; and the period when the same will cease.	9. Whether the FABRIC of the Church is in a good and sound condition, or in a dilapidated state, or rendered unsound by time, and to what extent; as to the Funds for Repairs, and whence supplied, and the sufficiency or insufficiency thereof; and, if insufficient, to what amount, and how proposed to be supplied.	10. Whether there are HOUSES assigned for the residence of the Dean and the other Members of the Chapter or Corporation, or any, and which of them; whether occupied by them, and by whom kept in repair.	11. Whether the Dean, or any and which of the Members of the Chapter or Corporation has, or have any SEPARATE REVENUES in right of the Deanery, or of their Prebends or Dignities respectively, besides the Revenues shown by this Table.	12. PERSONS composing the CHAPTER or CORPORATION, and other Spiritual Members of the Cathedral or Collegiate Church; what their stipends and allowances; and what sum divided among the Members of the Chapter or Corporation; whether Houses assigned to, and occupied by the other Spiritual Members not of the Chapter or Corporation.
The average of seven years would probably fall a little below the average now given.	Interest and annuities, amounting together to £179 18*s.* 10*d.* per annum, on a sum borrowed under 54 G. III. for repairing cathedral.	The fabric is in a sound state, but wanting frequent repairs from its exposed situation. The estate at Llanhaiadr, producing £1,080 per annum, included in the gross income returned, is appropriated to the necessary repairs of the cathedral in the first place, and, subject to the same to the maintenance of the establishment and choir.	The dean has a house, which he occupies, and is bound to keep in repair. None assigned to the other members.	The dean, prebendaries, and cursal canons, have all respectively separate revenues; for particulars, see Table No. III.	The corporation consists of the dean and thirteen prebendaries, who divide the net income equally. There are four vicars choral who are the incumbents of the benefice of St. Asaph. No houses assigned for residence.
. . .	. .	The fabric is in a sound condition. The funds for keeping it in repair arise from the tithes of two comportions of the rectory of Llandinam, in the county of Montgomery, of which £60 annually are applied to that purpose; the remainder being applicable to the maintenance of the choir, as settled by a decree of the Court of Chancery; but it is thought that the appropriation for repairs will, in a few years, be scarcely sufficient.	The dean has a house, and resides therein, and is bound to keep it in repair. None of the other members of the chapter have houses assigned to them for residence.	The dean, the archdeacon of Bangor, the archdeacon of Anglesey, the archdeacon of Merioneth, the prebendary of Llanfair, the prebendary of Penmynydd, the treasurer, and the precentor, have separate revenues. See Table No. III.	The corporation consists of the dean, the archdeacon of Bangor, the archdeacon of Anglesey, the archdeacon of Merioneth, the prebendary of Llanfair, the prebendary of Penmynydd, the treasurer, the chancellor, the precentor, and three canons. There are also two priest-vicars, whose revenues are derived from the tithes of the comportions of the rectory of Llandinam; the net annual revenue of each from his office having been, on an average of three years, ending in 1831, £46 1*s.* 3½*d.* The senior priest-vicar has a house assigned to him, in which the junior priest-vicar resides.
The amount of fines on renewals of leases will be less than the sum stated by at least ten per cent., by reason of the great depreciation of the value of houses in Bristol.	. .	The chapter and muniment room were broken into during the riots, in 1831, and those parts of the building, which were much injured, have undergone expensive reparations. The fabric of the church is sound. The expense of repairing it is defrayed out of the general revenues.	Houses are assigned for the residence of the dean and the prebendaries, who are bound to keep them in repair. The dean occupies his decanal house; of the prebendaries, some reside and some let their houses at rack rent.	None.	The corporation consists of the dean and six prebendaries. The dean has an annual stipend of £100, and each of the six prebendaries £20; the fines are divided between them in eight shares, the dean having two, and each of the prebendaries one. The annual sum so divided was, according to the said average, £3,022. There are six minor canons. The precentor receives about £80, arising from his salary of £60 and fees from funerals, and the other canons £40 each. There are no houses assigned to them for residence.
The revenues of the cathedral will be considerably diminished, for the reasons appearing in the eighth and ninth columns.	£20,000 borrowed of the governors of Queen Anne's bounty to rebuild the north-western tower of the cathedral; which debt will be liquidated in forty-three years. £2,000 borrowed to purchase houses taken down to open a better view of the cathedral, and to improve the precincts.	The fabric, generally speaking, is in a sound state; but a considerable annual expenditure must necessarily be incurred in repairs and restorations. No funds are reserved for the reparation of the fabric, but the produce of all sales of timber are applied to that purpose; and from time to time large sums must be supplied from other portions of the corporate revenues.	Houses are assigned for the residence of the dean and the twelve prebendaries, and are occupied by them. They are bound to keep them in repair.	None.	The corporation consists of the dean and twelve prebendaries. The dean has assigned to him, by statute, a yearly stipend of £56 13*s.* 4*d.* The twelve prebendaries have each a yearly stipend of £17 6*s.* 8*d.* There are six preachers with a stipend of £25 each, and an allowance for residence. The minor canons, who are six in number, receive each a stipend of £80 per annum; having also houses assigned to them, in which they severally reside, and which are kept in repair out of the corporate revenues. The surplus net revenues are divided into fourteen equal shares, of which the dean receives two, and each prebendary one. The sum so divided, according to the said average, being £14,377.
If the average had been taken upon seven years, the net yearly produce would not have exceeded the sum of £3,510; and the same may be expected for the seven years next ensuing.	No temporary charges.	The fabric is in a sound state. The monies arising from the sale of wood constitute a fund for repairs, which has been sufficient for the last three years; but in preceding years not sufficient, and a part of the fines have been applied to that object, which may be expected to happen again.	Houses are assigned for the residence of the dean and each of the prebendaries, which they occupy respectively, and are bound to keep in repair.	None.	The corporation consists of the dean and four canons. The dean has received £121 7*s.* 6*d.* per annum; the four canons, £22 5*s.* each; vice-dean, £1 11*s.* 1*d.*; receiver-general, £2 2*s.* 2*d.*; treasurer, £2 15*s.* 6*d.*; librarian, £3 4*s.* 5*d.* There are six minor canons, of whom one is the lecturer, another the sacrist, and a third the schoolmaster. The lecturer of the cathedral, who is also lecturer of St. Cuthbert's, is paid for the two offices £100 per annum. Five minor canons, £8 each; the curate of St. Cuthbert's, £5 6*s.* 8*d.*; the sacrist, £1; all the minor canons, except the lecturer, have £20 each from tithes; in addition to which, the minor canons hold the tithes of St. Cuthbert's, now under litigation. The surplus revenue is divided into six equal parts, two of which go to the dean, and the remainder equally among the four canons; the sum so divided, according to the said average, being £4,809. No houses assigned for residence.

Table are taken on an average of three years, ending on the day of the last settlement of accounts in the year 1831.

f the average were taken upon seven years instead of three, the gross revenue would be £2,745; but a considerable diminution of revenue in future years is expected, from a depreciation of the value of tithes.	There are debts amounting to about £850, and an annuity for life, of £54 per annum, is paid to an annuitant aged fifty-six years.	The fabric is generally sound. An estate, called the Tarporley Estate, constitutes a sufficient fund for ordinary repairs. In the last twelve years upwards of £8,000 were expended in repairs, which money was furnished, partly by the Tarporley Fund, and partly by public contribution. Some parts of the fabric will soon want extensive repairs.	There is a good and sufficient house assigned to the dean, and occupied and kept in repair by him; and there are also houses belonging to the respective stalls which are kept in repair by the respective prebendaries; only two or three of them are convenient and sufficient residences.	None.	The corporation consists of the dean and six prebendaries. The salary of the dean is £120; that of the prebendaries £26 13*s.* 4*d.* each. The fine-money is first divided into eight parts; one-eighth is carried to the church account, the remainder is again divided into eight parts, of which two go to the dean and the other six to the prebendaries. After which payment of salaries and apportionment of fine-money, the remainder of the net revenue is always applied in liquidation of the church account. There are also six minor canons with salaries of £15 each; and £48 each arising from lands left to them by Mrs. Barbara Dod, in 1703. Two of the minor canons have houses assigned to them, in which they reside, the same being repaired out of the church fund.
As the stated average amount of fines exceeds the general average, it is considered that the net yearly income is estimated at a higher amount than can be fairly reckoned upon for the future. It is expected to be, communibus annis, about £2,500 per annum.	None.	The fabric is in a sound state. The funds applicable to the repairs arise from dividends of money in the stocks, from the sale of timber, and from burial and monumental fees, which are sufficient for the substantial repairs.	There are houses assigned for the residence of the dean and two of the canons residentiary, who reside in them and are bound to keep them in repair.	They all have. See Table No. III.	The persons composing the corporation are the dean and four canons residentiary, who divide the net income equally. There are also four minor canons who receive from the funds of the dean and chapter, on an average of the three years above mentioned, £117 8*s.* 1*d.*, which is divided equally among them. They have houses assigned to them respectively.
No material variation expected.	None.	. . . .	There are four vicarial houses; one for each member of the body, kept in repair by him. Three are let, and the other occupied by the vicar.	None.	The corporation consists of four members, who divide the net income equally.
The sum stated in respect of fines on renewal of leases, rather exceeds the average expected for the future.	None.	The fabric, although some parts of it are very old, is in tolerably good repair. It is always repaired out of the revenues before any division is made.	The precentor, chancellor, and treasurer have houses which they keep in repair. The precentor is generally resident. The two other houses are small, and inhabited by vicars choral as tenants.	The precentor, chancellor, and treasurer have separate revenues. See Table No. III.	The corporation consists of six canons, who take equal shares of the net revenue, (except the adoptions, which are paid in the following proportions, according to seniority; namely, £32, £15, £11, £10, £8, and £5 13*s.* 4*d.*, in all £82 6*s.* 8*d.*); the average sum so divided, after payment of the adoptions, being £1,176. There are eight vicars-choral, of whom sometimes four and sometimes five are priests, and one of the lay vicars is always organist. The vicars-choral are a corporate body.
No expected increase or decrease.	None.	. . . .	No member of the body has any house of residence attached to his office.	None.	The corporate body consists of eight persons; each receives £36 from what is called the common fund; each also receives, yearly, from certain small tithes, as follows, viz. the subchanter £38, senior vicar-choral £80, bishop's vicar £39. The other five as follows: £32, £44, £37, £18, and £15; all which sums amount together to £591. The subchanter, the bishop's vicar, and the organist, also receive from the dean and chapter, in respect of their several offices in the cathedral, £6, £2 14*s.* 9*d.*, and £31.

The augmentations of the poor livings in the patronage of the dean and chapter, when completed as intended, exclusively of those which were granted previously to 1831, amounting to £1,734 2*s.* 9*d.*, are estimated at £3,000 per annum. The Chapter have expended, and are expending, large sums in building churches and chapels; and property, which produced, upon an average, £2,986 18*s.* per annum, has been appropriated to the Durham University. By a supplementary statement it appears that in July, 1832, a fine of £44,266 12*s.* 10*d.* was paid, by the Marquis of Londonderry, for the renewal of a colliery lease, of which about twelve years had expired; and that it is improbable that so large a fine should be received again. It is further stated, that the average of the three years upon which the return was made was higher than the average of any former three years; and that, independently of the appropriation to the Durham University, and of the augmentations of poor livings, as above mentioned, the revenues are expected in future to produce a much lower average than that which has been stated.	None.	The interior of the church is in a sound state; part of the external surface is decayed. The produce of the woods is appropriated to the repairs, together with the interest of £17,200, 3 per cent. consols, subject to the payment of the following sums; viz £100, £800, £300, and a debt of £727 1*s.* 5½*d.* for current expenses; and to £238 10*s.* per annum, being interest on money advanced for draining lands. The dean and chapter have added, as occasion has required, what has been further necessary, out of the revenues.	There are houses assigned to the dean and the other members of the chapter, which they reside in and keep in repair, the wood being allowed them for that purpose.	They all have. See Table No. III.	The corporation consists of the dean and twelve prebendaries. There are also eight minor canons, of whom the precentor and sacrist have each £168 6*s.* 9*d.*; the reader of prayers in the Galilee chapel, £174 11*s.* 9*d.*; the gospeller, £158 6*s.* 9*d.*; one reader of early prayers, £155 18*s.* 9*d.*; another reader of early prayers, who is also epistoler, £165 18*s.* 9*d.*; and the two other minor canons, £148 6*s.* 9*d.* each; which revenues are paid by the dean and chapter. No houses are assigned to them for residence. After payment of such stipends and allowances, and also of the stipends and allowances, amounting to £5,672 13*s.* 4*d.*, to the dean and prebendaries who have kept their residence, the surplus is divided into fourteen parts, of which the dean receives two-fourteenths, and the prebendaries one each; the sum so divided, according to the said average, being £20,877.
Decrease expected in respect of fines on renewals of leases, the stated average thereof exceeding, by £2,144, the general average. Most of the leases are of rectorial tithes, and the lessees appear unwilling to renew upon terms equal to those hitherto accepted.	. . .	The fabric of the church is in a sound state, and is repaired out of the domus, or church fund, comprising that portion of the revenues which arises from the profits of manors in hand; from a defined portion of the reserved rents; a legacy; and a small payment from a turnpike trust. When deficient, the chapter have supplied the deficiency out of their own dividends.	There are houses assigned for the residence of the dean and prebendaries, and occupied by them respectively. They are repaired partly out of the domus fund and partly by the respective prebendaries who occupy them. The dean and chapter find all materials; the occupiers all the labour.	The dean and each of the prebendaries have, with their residences, a small portion of land which they let. See Table No. III.	The corporation consists of the dean and eight prebendaries, among whom is divided the fund called the onus dividend, which consists of fines on the renewals of leases, a certain portion of reserved rents, the rents of property in hand, and the dividends of monies for parts of estates taken by commissioners under Acts of Parliament. The dean and prebendaries have stipends amounting together to £300 7*s.* 6*d.* The sums paid to the other ecclesiastical members of the cathedral amount together to the sum of £267. The sum divided among the dean and prebendaries was, according to the said average, £6,069. There are four minor canons, each of whom, in addition to his minor canonry, holds some office in the cathedral. The sums specified in this column appear to exceed the net income so as to leave a deficiency; but it is stated, that if the income were to be taken on a more extended average, there would have been a different result. The minor canons have no houses as minor canons, but as registrar and upper grammar-schoolmaster two of them have houses assigned to them for residence.

7. EXPECTED INCREASE OR DECREASE (If any) OF INCOME.	8. TEMPORARY CHARGES On the Revenues of the Corporate Body, payable out of the net yearly income stated in No. 6; and the period when the same will cease.	9. Whether the FABRIC of the Church is in a good and sound condition, or in a dilapidated state, or rendered unsound by time, and to what extent; as to the funds for repairs, and whence supplied, and the sufficiency or insufficiency thereof; and, if insufficient, to what amount, and how proposed to be supplied.	10. Whether there are HOUSES assigned for the residence of the Dean and the other Members of the Chapter or Corporation, or any and which of them; whether occupied by them, and by whom kept in repair.	11. PERSONS composing the CHAPTER or CORPORATION, and other Spiritual Members of the Cathedral or Collegiate Church; what their stipends and allowances; and what sum divided among the Members of the Chapter or Corporation; whether Houses assigned to, and occupied by the other Spiritual Members not of the Chapter or Corporation.
No expected increase or decrease, except in trifling particulars. The corporation have availed themselves of the late Act by augmenting two poor livings in their patronage.	For the liquidation of a debt incurred in building a house for residence, there has been reserved an annual sinking fund of £229, which will cease in about twenty or thirty years.	The fabric is in a sound state. A tenth part of all fines have, by ancient custom, been set apart for its reparation, which having been found insufficient, the deficiency has been supplied out of the general revenues.	There are houses assigned for the residence of the dean, the precentor, the chancellor, and three others, for residentiaries, all of whom are bound respectively to keep their houses in repair.	The dean, the precentor, the chancellor, the treasurer, and the subdean have each separate revenues. See Table No. III.	There are twenty-four canons or prebendaries, of whom nine are canons residentiary, the dean being one. The prebendaries, not being canons residentiary, receive fixed payments of £20 per annum each. The nine canons residentiary receive each a fixed payment of £69 5s., and divide among them the surplus net revenue, after payment of all stipends and allowances. The three archdeacons are paid the annual sum of £135 among them. The lecturer is paid a fixed stipend of £30 out of the revenues. The sum divided among the canons residentiary was, according to the said average, £5,983.
The college has given the additional sum of £42 per annum, since 1831, to their curate at Woodbury; and is paying off every year £50 of a debt, arising from the expenses of a law-suit, which sum has only been carried into the account since 1830. Several renewals took place, about two years ago, making the amount of fines exceed the general average; and upon the whole a less yearly sum, by about £90, may be expected for the future.	The debt before-mentioned was, in the year 1831, £1,271 0s. 4d., upon which is paid, besides interest, £50 annually in discharge of the principal; which, it is expected, will be paid off in about twenty-five years.	. . . .	The custos and college have houses belonging to the corporation, but they do not reside in them, being unfit for the residence of clergymen. The priest-vicars are bound respectively to keep them in repair.	None.	The corporation consists of four priest-vicars, of whom one is the dean's vicar and subtreasurer, and another the custos of the college. They divide the net revenues equally among them. The dean's vicar has £14 per annum from surplice fees. The custos of the college has no additional stipend for that office.
The dean and chapter state, that, on a full consideration of the nature of their revenues, a greater sum, by £360, may be expected, in future, as their net annual revenue.	None.	The fabric is in a sound state. The requisite sum for repairs is taken annually from the general revenues of the chapter, no payments being made to the members thereof till the expense of repairs is discharged.	Houses are assigned for the residence of the dean and each of the prebendaries, who are respectively bound to keep them in repair; they all reside except two, one of whom has his Majesty's dispensation for non-residence, and the other is prevented from residing by ill-heath.	None.	The corporation consists of the dean and six prebendaries. The dean receives £100 as an annual stipend; the prebendaries £20 each; the subdean £10; and the treasurer, who is always one of the prebendaries, £15 17s. 2d. There are four minor canons, three of whom have each £50 per annum salary, and the fourth £90. One of the minor canons is under-schoolmaster, for which office he receives £10 per annum; and another, as librarian, receives £4 per annum; which stipends are paid out of the revenues of the dean and chapter. The minor canons have no houses assigned to them. The dean receives two-eighths and the prebendaries each one-eighth of the surplus net revenue; the sum so divided, according to the said average, was £3,440.
No expected increase or decrease.	Five per cent. is charged upon all leasehold and copyhold fines, which is made a sinking fund for gradually extinguishing a debt incurred for the repairs of the fabric, amounting to £9,371 17s. 5¼d.	The fabric is kept in as good and sound a state as the decays arising from its great antiquity will permit. In a few years considerable expense will be incurred in repairs, as the eastern transept, the cloisters, and some of the windows, are much decayed, and there have been several serious rents in some parts of the building. There is an estate appropriated to the repairs of the building, which, with some other small resources, have produced, on an average of three years, £645 3s., but the expenditure has been £791 4s. 10d.; and the difference has been made good by the dean and chapter out of their own funds.	The dean and the bishop's prebendary are the only two members of the chapter who are in possession of houses belonging to their dignities; they reside in them and are bound to keep them in repair.	They all have. See Table No. III.	The corporation is composed of the dean and five residentiary prebendaries, who, after payment of all stipends and allowances, divide between them the surplus net revenues, excepting what are called options, and which are chosen according to seniority of standing in the chapter, save that the dean, on the first year after his appointment, and on every subsequent seven years, has the first choice; the sum so divided, according to the said average, was £3,247. Besides the residentiary prebendaries above mentioned, there is a precentor, and also twenty-two prebendaries. There is also a college of vicars which is a corporate body.

7. EXPECTED INCREASE OR DECREASE (If any) OF INCOME.	8. TEMPORARY CHARGES On the Revenues of the Corporate Body, payable out of the net yearly income stated in No. 6; and the period when the same will cease.	9. Whether the FABRIC of the Church is in a good and sound condition, or in a dilapidated state, or rendered unsound by time, and to what extent; as to the funds for repairs, and whence supplied, and the sufficiency or insufficiency thereof; and, if insufficient, to what amount, and how proposed to be supplied.	10. Whether the Dean, or any and which of the Members of the Chapter or Corporation has, or have any SEPARATE REVENUES in right of the Deanery, or of their Prebends or Dignities respectively, besides the Revenues shown by this Table.	12. PERSONS composing the CHAPTER or CORPORATION, and other Spiritual Members of the Cathedral or Collegiate Church; what their stipends and allowances; and what sum divided among the Members of the Chapter or Corporation; whether Houses assigned to, and occupied by the other Spiritual Members not of the Chapter or Corporation.
No expected increase or decrease.	The only temporary charge appears in the next column.	The college buildings had been long in an unsound state; and were further damaged, by fire, in 1828. The reparations, which are proceeding at the costs and charges of the existing members, are expected to be shortly completed.	No houses are assigned for the custos and vicars, except the chambers for residence of all the unmarried members of the society in the college buildings.	Four of the members of the corporation, who are minor canons, have separate revenues. See Table No. III.	The corporation is composed of the custos and eleven vicars, of whom four are minor canons. Eight of the vicars receive the following annual sums:—St. Mary's vicar, who is also the Custos, £3; St. Nicholas, £18; St. Agnes, £7; St. Margaret, £4; the two vicars of Hom Lacy, £3 6*s.* 8*d.* each; the two vicars of Diddlebury, £3 each. The surplus net revenue is equally divided among the members of the corporation, except that the Custos has a double portion of the fines.
If the fines on renewals of leases were taken on an average of seven instead of three years, it would exceed the average stated by about £150 per annum.	None.	The fabric has required great attention, and a considerable outlay for many years past. The funds applicable to the repairs consist of reserved rents, some fines on the renewal of leases, pew rents, and the interest of certain securities placed under the control of the dean and chapter by the Act of the 37 G. III.	Houses are assigned for their residence, and they are bound to keep them in repair.	They all have. See Table No. III.	The corporation consists of the dean and six canons residentiary. The dean receives for his commons £42 10*s.*, and each of the canons £14 6*s.*, and they divide the surplus in the following proportions; the dean receives one-fifth, and the remaining four-fifths are equally shared among the six canons residentiary; the average sum so divided being £1,183.
No expected increase or decrease.	None.	. . . .	Each member has a house assigned for his residence, which he is bound to keep in repair.	None, except that the subchanter receives, independently of the common vicarial fund, certain annual payments amounting to £7.	The corporation consists of twelve persons, viz.: five priest-vicars, including the subchanter, an organist, and six vicars choral. The net revenues are equally divided among the twelve members, except the reserved rents, from which the priest vicars receive £2 each more than the vicars choral.
A great decrease is expected in respect of fines on the renewals of leases, and from the declining value of estates.	None.	The fabric of the church is, for the most part, in a good and sound state. The funds appropriated to keep it in repair, and which are deemed sufficient for the purpose, consist of the reserved rents, and rack rents, of estates originally given for the use of the fabric, fines on renewals, and dividends on £600 3 per cent. consols, raised from accumulations of the surplus from the preceding sources, amounting to £1,108 12*s.* 5*d.*, from which, if obits, salaries, taxes, and other charges incident to the fabric, be deducted, the annual balance to meet the expenses of repairs will be £918 8*s.* 9*d.*	Houses are assigned for the residence of the dean and the three other members of the chapter, in which they reside, and which they are bound to keep in repair.	They all have. See Table No. III.	The corporation consists of the dean, the precentor, the chancellor, and the subdean. There are also four priest-vicars, who are a corporate body, as stated below, and have houses assigned to them for residence, in which they respectively reside. The members of the corporation divide the surplus net revenue equally among themselves; the sum so divided, according to the said average, was £6,959.
. . . .	. . .	. . . .	. . .	. . .	The corporation consists of four vicars choral, of whom one is the provost. They divide the revenues equally.
A greater yearly income may be expected, as some of the chapter leases, which were in a course of renewal, during the last three years, were not renewed. The chapter leases are generally renewed every seven years; and if the average of fines, for the last seven years, were to be taken, it would amount to £735.	None.	Part of the old cathedral is in ruins, but the rest is in good repair. The rent of a rectory, after deducting the old reserved rent of the chapter, amounting to £32, is appropriated to the repairs. There is also 1 per cent. always deducted from the amount of the fines, which is paid to the inspector of the fabric, who debits himself with it in his fabric account; and when there is a balance in hand, more than enough for repairs, it is invested in the 3 per cent. consols. This stock now amounts to £1,000; a new roof will be necessary in a few years, when this fund must be resorted to.	No houses are assigned to any of the members of the chapter.	They all have. See Table No. III.	The chapter consists of thirteen persons; and the surplus net revenues, after the payment thereout of all salaries, and allowances, are divided into fourteen shares, whereof the bishop receives two, his lordship being also treasurer of the cathedral; and each of the other members of the chapter receives one-fourteenth; the average sum so divided being £533. There are two vicars choral, the senior of whom has a net yearly income of £214 6*s.* 8*d.*, composed of the small tithes of Llandaff and Whitchurch, being £200 per annum, preaching money, and surplice fees. The junior vicar has £75 16*s.* 8*d.*, composed of a salary of £60 from the chapter, preaching money, and surplice fees.

CHRIST CHURCH Christ Church alone, of all the cathedrals in the kingdom, embraces in its foundation a chapter, and also a college, on the largest scale. The revenues and outgoings of the cathedral church, and also of the college, cannot be stated separately; the total, therefore, in respect of both establishments, is necessarily included in this return, although the revenues of the latter are not ecclesiastical, and, therefore, not properly returnable under the present Commission.

7. EXPECTED INCREASE OR DECREASE (If any) OF INCOME.	8. TEMPORARY CHARGES On the Revenues of the Corporate Body, payable out of the net yearly income stated in No. 6; and the period when the same will cease.	9. Whether the FABRIC of the Church is in a good and sound condition, or in a dilapidated state, or rendered unsound by time, and to what extent; as to the funds for repairs, and whence supplied, and the sufficiency or insufficiency thereof; and, if insufficient, to what amount, and how proposed to be supplied.	10. Whether there are HOUSES assigned for the residence of the Dean and the other Members of the Chapter or Corporation, or any and which of them; whether occupied by them, and by whom kept in repair.	11. Whether the Dean, or any and which of the Members of the Chapter or Corporation has, or have any SEPARATE REVENUES in right of the Deanery, or of their Prebends or Dignities respectively, besides the Revenues shown by this Table.	12. PERSONS composing the CHAPTER or CORPORATION, and other Spiritual Members of the Cathedral or Collegiate Church; what their stipends and allowances; and what sum divided among the Members of the Chapter or Corporation; whether Houses assigned to, and occupied by the other Spiritual Members not of the Chapter or Corporation.
No increase expected.	An annual sum of £18 6*s.* is paid to the vicar of Eaton, which will cease in 1841. And an annuity of £20 is paid in liquidation of a sum of £200, borrowed, which will terminate in 1840.	The fabric of the church is in a sound state, except some of the exterior stone work of the walls. Much has been laid out of late years in the repairs of various parts. There are no specific funds appropriated for repairing it; but the interest of a small fund, arising from the sale of timber, now amounting to £2.000 3 per cent. consols, and £388 on mortgage of bridge tolls, has been usually applied to this object. Except from this fund, the church is repaired out of the general revenues.	Houses are assigned for the residence of the dean and prebendaries, who occupy them respectively and are bound to keep them in repair; but there is an allowance, out of the general funds of the corporation, of £20 per annum to the dean, and £10 per annum to each prebendary, for materials for the repairs.	None.	The corporation consists of a dean and six prebendaries. The corps money, &c. of the dean is £102 5*s.*, and of each prebendary only £20. There are six minor canons, three of whom have £20 per annum; one of them, the precentor. £40; another of them, the sacrist, £29; and another, the librarian, £31. There are also a gospeller and epistoller. To the gospeller is paid £19 per annum, and to the epistoller £26 10*s.*, all which payments are made out of the funds of the dean and chapter. Three of the minor canons have houses assigned to them. The three other minor canons have small sums per annum in lieu of houses, viz. one £25 per annum, the other two £10 each. For the epistoller a new house has been built; the gospeller has £15 per annum in lieu of one. The dean and prebendaries divide the surplus net revenue, after payment of all stipends and allowances, in the following proportions: the dean has two-eighths, and the prebendaries one-eighth each. The average sum divided among the dean and prebendaries was £4,992.
Decrease expected in consequence of the decreased value of estates, which will cause a reduction in the amount of corn rents and fines on renewals of leases; and also in consequence of the means adopted for the increased augmentation of the livings in the gift of the dean and chapter, which they bestow upon members of the foundation not of their own corporate body.	None.	The fabric of the cathedral is in a sound state. The college buildings have required, and will continue to require, great reparations; and the ordinary resources of the college being inadequate to the purpose, the dean and chapter established a fund, some years ago, for extraordinary repairs, (which was nearly exhausted by the fire in 1809:) they transferred the timber money and the surplus of the land tax, as well as certain profits of the deanery and canonries, when vacant, to that fund; besides which, they have taxed themselves with a payment on admission, the dean of £200, each canon of £100, and take an entrance fee for the same purpose from each member of the college, and a small quarterly decrement; and they have lately relinquished to this fund chamber rents, which were formerly divided, amounting to £400 per annum, in lieu of the surplus of land tax, now restored to the fund for augmenting their small livings.	Houses are assigned to the dean and canons, which are in their occupation; the college keep the exterior in repair.	None.	The chapter consists of a dean and eight canons. The dean receives for wages £133 6*s.* 8*d.*, and for focalia £10; and each canon receives for wages £20, and for focalia £5. Of the rent of the college meadow (let for £250) the dean receives one-half, and each canon one-sixteenth. The average sum divided between the dean and canons, but subject to taxes, contributions to small livings, &c., was £12,547, the dean receiving one-fifth, and each canon one-tenth; and the average sum divided between them in the same proportions, in respect of their college offices, but subject to college and university dues, was £2,153. The difference between the net yearly income, taken upon the average of the three years ending in 1831, stated in column 6, and the amount of the two last-mentioned sums, is accounted for by the peculiar character of the dean and chapter with relation to the college, and their complicated and multifarious accounts, the explanation of which does not appear to be necessary, and could not be reduced within the compass of a tabular statement.
Decrease expected in respect of fines on renewals of leases to the extent of £20 per cent. per annum, on account of the depreciated value of the chapter estates demised by such leases. The net yearly income is expected to be reduced to £8,000, or about that sum.	None.	The fabric is in a good and sound state. The fund for keeping it in repair is £20,000 South Sea Annuities, standing in the names of trustees. This fund, with the addition of the produce of woods, considered to be a very slender provision for the repairs of so vast a fabric.	Houses are assigned to the dean and the other members of the chapter, who occupy them and are bound to keep them in repair.	The dean has separate revenues in respect of his deanery, and also in respect of his prebend of Hoxton. The three residentiaries, who are respectively prebendaries of Consumpta per Mare, Weldland, and Neasden, have also separate revenues. See Table No. III.	The chapter consists of the dean, who is also a canon residentiary, and three other canons residentiary. The dean and canons residentiary equally divide the surplus net revenues, after payment of stipends and allowances; the average sum so divided being £9,048. There are twelve minor canons, who have, collectively, as a corporation aggregate, and individually, as corporations sole, made their returns. There are also twenty-six prebendaries who have separate revenues. See Table No. III.

he future average will be greater, as no renewals of eases have taken place during the three years ending 1831. The fines, communibus annis, are worth about £140 per annum.	None.	. . . .	None.	They all have. See Table No. III.	The corporation consists of twelve persons, who divide the net revenues equally. They have no houses assigned them for residence.
f the average of fines received were taken on twenty-one years, ending 1831, it would fall below the average stated by £836 per annum.	None.	The fabric is in a sound state, except part of the roof, which is in a course of reparation. The fabric has been usually repaired out of the corporate revenues of the dean and chapter, assisted of late by public contributions and considerable advances by the several members of the chapter; who have of late years done much, and are proceeding to do more, to add to the stability and ornament of the cathedral.	The dean and the six prebendaries have houses assigned to them, which they respectively occupy. Allowances from the corporate revenues have been made, as occasion required, for the substantial repairs of the deanery-house; and a small fixed annual sum is allowed from the revenues towards repairing the prebendal houses.	None.	The corporation consists of the dean and six prebendaries. The fixed yearly stipend of the dean is £160 per annum, and that of each of the prebendaries £36. There are four minor canons, who have each a stipend of £52 per annum. The precentor has, for the offices of sacrist and librarian, £17 13*s.* per annum. The precentor has a house assigned to him for his residence. The minor canons have no houses assigned to them. The dean and six prebendaries divide the surplus net revenues equally among them, except that the dean receives two eighths, and each of the prebendaries one eighth, of the fines on the renewal of leases, court fines, seal fees, and a few other small payments. The sum divided according to the above average was £3,918.
he average of the net income, for the last three years, is considered to be less than the general average; but as the dean and chapter have it in contemplation to augment certain vicarages of small value, there will be a corresponding diminution in the amount of the sums to be divided among the members of the chapter.	The dean and chapter are under an engagement to remove some buildings which are considered a nuisance to the cathedral precinct, and to erect them on another site, at an estimated expense of £1,300, which engagement is to be fulfilled in the course of four years. They are also engaged to contribute to the erection of farm buildings, on an allotment of land, under an enclosure Act, at an expense of £200.	The church has been repaired within the last seven years, at an expense of above £14,000. This expenditure far exceeded the fund which had been annually reserved for repairs, and the deficiency, amounting to £7,500, was supplied out of the net produce usually divided by the dean and chapter. Considerable repairs remain to be done, which must be supplied out of the general revenues of the corporation.	Houses are assigned for the dean and each of the prebendaries, who are bound to keep them respectively in repair. The dean occupies his own house, and four of the prebendaries occupy theirs respectively.	None.	The corporation is composed of the dean and six prebendaries. There are six minor canons, each of whom has a stipend of £30; the master of the grammar school, £62; and the usher, £28. The offices of sacrist and precentor are held by the minor canons in succession; the salary of each is £2 per annum. All these sums are paid out of the general revenues of the dean and chapter. The master of the grammar school and minor canons have separate houses assigned them, in which they reside. The repairs and other charges are borne by the dean and chapter. The dean and prebendaries divide the surplus net revenue as follows:—The dean receives two eighths, and each prebendary one eighth. The average sum divided was £4,809.
he net yearly produce of the revenues may be expected to decrease, on account of the reduced value of tithes, and of the lands let on renewable leases.	None.	The church is sound; but in continual want of repairs. An estate, in lands and houses, is specifically appropriated for keeping the church in repair, given to the corporation for that purpose, and managed by two members of the chapter, annually chosen; and, as supplementary to this fund, a per-centage of 2½ is charged upon all fines on the renewal of leases, in virtue of a statute, passed by the chapter about twenty-four years ago; besides which, the dean and chapter have regularly contributed an eighth part of their own fines in aid of the fabric fund.	Houses are assigned for the residence of the dean and other members of the chapter, which they occupy and are bound to keep in repair.	They all have. See Table No. III.	The corporation consists of the dean and six canons, who divide the net revenues, except fines on renewals, in the following proportions: Two eighths are received by the dean, and one eighth by each of the six canons. The fines are equally divided, subject to the reservation mentioned in the 9th column. There are four priest-vicars, who are a corporate body. (See below.) There are also forty prebendaries, who have their separate revenues. See Table No. III.

TEMPORARY CHARGES on the Revenues of the Corporate Body, payable out of the net yearly income stated in No. 6; and the period when the same will cease.	9. Whether the FABRIC of the Church is in a good and sound condition, or in a dilapidated state, or rendered unsound by time, and to what extent; as to the funds for repairs, and whence supplied, and the sufficiency or insufficiency thereof; and, if insufficient, to what amount, and how proposed to be supplied.	10. PERSONS composing the CHAPTER or CORPORATION, and other Spiritual Members of the Cathedral or Collegiate Church; what their stipends and allowances; and what sum divided among the Members of the Chapter or Corporation; whether Houses assigned, to and occupied by the other Spiritual Members not of the Chapter or Corporation.
No expected increase or decrease.	None.	. . . .	There are houses assigned, but not sufficient for families. The vicars live on their own property or in rented houses.	None.	The corporation consists of four persons, who divide the net revenues equally.
Expected decrease to the extent of about £2,700 per annum, as it is considered that the general average receipts from fines is not likely to be more than £4,000, whereas the average of the three years (£6,695) was occasioned by extraordinary circumstances.	The dean and chapter pay £20 per annum to the curate of Stoke St. Gregory, which charge will terminate when a sum of £1,000, given by the bounty board, shall be invested in the purchase of land.	The fabric of the church is, for the most part, in a sound state, but requires a constant expenditure to keep it in repair. The sums required for this purpose are taken from the gross income, without any separate or appropriated funds.	The dean, in right of his dignity, has a residence not belonging to the chapter, which he is bound to keep in repair. There are five houses for the five senior canons residentiary, which they respectively occupy and are bound to keep in repair. A house for the remaining canon will fall into hand at no distant period.	They all have. See Table No. III.	The corporation consists of the dean, who is also a canon residentiary, and six other canons residentiary, who take equal shares of the surplus net revenue. The average sum so divided was £6,445. There are four priest-vicars who are a corporate body. (See below.) There are also forty-two prebendaries, who have their separate revenues. See Table No. III.
The estates are leased almost entirely upon lives, and the vicars allege it to be extremely difficult to say what is their just average income.	None.	. . . .	They have houses or chambers assigned them for their residence, by the bishop of the diocese, within their own college, and are allowed to let the same, if they judge them insufficient for their accommodation.	None.	The corporation consists of four priest-vicars. After payment of some small allowances for stall wages, and certain offices and services, the surplus net revenue is equally divided between the priest-vicars. The average sum so divided was £330.
If the net yearly produce were taken upon an average of seven years, instead of three, it would comprehend a period in which all the leasehold estates come into renewal, and that average would give £9,123 9*s.* 2*d.* per annum for their net income; and they are not aware of any circumstance which would lead them to expect a greater or less yearly sum for the future.	None.	The fabric of the church is stated to be in a fair state, considering its great age; but though very large sums have, of late years, been expended upon it, it will still require, from time to time, considerable expenditure upon repairs, to meet which there is no fund reserved by statute; but the profits of woods, as far as they will go, have been applied for that purpose. What is further required comes out of the general funds.	There is a house assigned to the dean and to each of the twelve canons, who occupy the same respectively. The corporation furnishes the materials for repairs.	None.	The corporation consists of the dean and twelve canons. There are six minor canons, three of whom receive £65 14*s.* per annum; two, £79 0*s.* 8*d.*; and one, £85 14*s.*; the precentor and epistoller have for those offices respectively the annual sum of £12. The surplus net revenue is divided into fourteen shares, of which the dean has two, and the canons one each. The average sum divided was £10,635.
By a supplemental account it appears that the average of fines stated exceeds the average of seven years, ending in 1833, by about £330 per annum.	The revenues are subject to the payment of £800, and of interest thereon, at 5 per cent., until the same is paid.	The cathedral requires continual repair, and the funds, which consist of all reserved rents, except corn rents, and the greater part of copyhold fines, have been found insufficient for the purpose; and, latterly, the proceeds of an impropriate rectory, of £800 per annum, properly divisible among the dean and chapter, have been made an additional fund for this expenditure; but these provisions for repairs have not been found sufficient for several years past.	Houses are assigned for the residence of the dean and other members of the chapter, which they occupy and keep in repair.	None.	The corporation consists of the dean and ten prebendaries or canons, who divide the surplus net revenue into twelve shares, of which the dean receives two, and the prebendaries one each. The average sum so divided being £8,698. The dean also receives a larger stipend from corn rents, &c. which gives him about £200 per annum more than a double prebend. There are, also, eight minor canons, the yearly revenues of each of whom from his office, on an average of three years, ending in November, 1832, is £34, in addition to which, the precentor receives £14 15*s.*; the schoolmaster, £39 19*s.* 6*d.*; the sacrist, £4; the librarian, £4; and the under master, or usher, £28 1*s.* 5*d.* The schoolmaster and sacrist have houses assigned to them, which are occupied by them, and kept in repair by the dean and chapter.

PERSONS composing the CHAPTER or CORPORATION, and other Spiritual Members of the Cathedral or Collegiate Church; what their stipends and allowances; and what sum divided among the Members of the Chapter or Corporation; whether Houses assigned to, or occupied by the other Spiritual Members not of the Chapter or Corporation.
An increase is expected of £570 in respect of fines on renewals of leases, if the average of the next ten years should be equal to the average of the last ten years; but this supposition depends upon many contingencies.	None.	The fabric of the church is in a sound state, and the funds belonging to it consisting of estates in lands and tithes are sufficient to keep it so, and they are vested in the dean and chapter for that purpose.	The dean has a house belonging to the deanery in which he resides, and which he is bound to repair. The four canons residentiary occupy a house belonging to the church, in which they dwell for the period of their respective residencies; and for which they jointly pay a rent of £80 per annum to the church, and also all taxes and assessments; which, upon an average, amount to £63 16*s*. The residence house is kept in repair externally by the dean and chapter, and internally by the occupiers.	They all have. See Table No. III.	The corporation consists of the dean and four canons residentiary, between whom and the church the surplus net revenue is divided, each taking a sixth share, the share of the church being reserved to discharge the salaries of the persons belonging to the choir. The average sum so divided was £1,650. There are also twenty-six prebendaries, having separate revenues. The clergymen who attend the daily services of the church are the subchanter and the vicars choral, who are five in number, and a corporation aggregate. (See below.)
No expected increase or decrease.	None.	. .	None.	None.	The corporation consists of five persons, among whom the net revenue is equally divided.
There is reason to expect that the fines and rents will rather decrease, as far as respects the renewals of leases; and the tithes are likely to be less in amount; and in other respects there is no prospect of an increase of revenue.	None.	That part of the building, viz. the choir or chancel, belonging to the collegiate body, is in good repair. All repairs are paid for out of the dividends of the warden and fellows.	There are houses for the warden and fellows, respectively, but unfit for their residence, and are let on repairing leases.	None.	The corporation consists of five members, a warden and four fellows. The surplus net revenues are divided into six equal parts, whereof the warden has two, and the fellows one each. The clerical officers of the college are the senior chaplain, junior chaplain, and clerk in orders. The two chaplains receive each from the corporation £17 10*s*., and the clerk in orders £33 10*s*. annually; the remainder of the chaplain's income arises from pew rents and church dues, and that of the clerk in orders from fees. They have no houses assigned to them for residence. The average sum divided was £3,981.
It is expected that some reduction may take place both in the rent of the land and in the produce of the tithes, but not to any considerable amount; in other respects the proceeds are not likely to vary.	None.	The fabric is in good repair. It is kept so by a church rate.	There is a house for the residence of the dean, which is occupied by the Rev. J. Cockcroft, the minister for divine service, but the dean is liable to keep it in repair.	None.	The corporation, by charter, consists of a dean, six chaplains, four clerks, six choristers, and one clerk to administer divine service; but there are now no chaplains, clerks, or choristers; the only two members of the establishment being the dean and the minister for divine services and offices. The minister for divine services and offices receives out of the revenues £120, and the dean the remainder.

7. EXPECTED INCREASE OR DECREASE (If any) OF INCOME.	8. TEMPORARY CHARGES On the Revenues of the Corporate Body, payable out of the net yearly income stated in No. 6; and the period when the same will cease.	9. Whether the FABRIC of the Church is in a good and sound condition, or in a dilapidated state, or rendered unsound by time, and to what extent; as to the funds for repairs, and whence supplied, and the sufficiency or insufficiency thereof; and, if insufficient, to what amount, and how proposed to be supplied.	10. Whether the Dean, or any and which of the Members of the Chapter or Corporation has, or have any SEPARATE REVENUES in right of the Deanery, or of their Prebends or Dignities respectively, besides the Revenues shown by this Table.	12. PERSONS composing the CHAPTER or CORPORATION, and other Spiritual Members of the Cathedral or Collegiate Church; what their stipends and allowances; and what sum divided among the Members of the Chapter or Corporation; whether Houses assigned to, and occupied by the other Spiritual Members not of the Chapter or Corporation.
It is considered that the fines on the renewals of leases, except on one or two, cannot be much augmented, if at all: the copyhold fines for the last three or four years have been more than ordinarily productive. But should the right to small tithes, which is now resisted, be established, there will be an increase of £150 per annum for the next five years; and afterwards (partly from the renewal of leases) of £300; but subject to the regulation mentioned in the column No. 9.	None.	The fabric still stands in need of repairs, though much has been laid out upon it. To this object there are certain appropriated lands and tenements, the income of which, together with the pew rents, and other appropriations, have proved insufficient. To supply this want, it was determined that in future the surplus revenues should be divided into nineteen fixed shares, and that the fixed share of any absent member should go to the fabric account; and further, that whenever the sum to be divided should exceed £342, the overplus should be carried to the same account; and that these provisions should continue until there should be sufficient monies to meet the ordinary, as well as casual, demands for repairs.	There is a house assigned for the residentiary, whoever he may be, dean, subdean, or prebendary, but the dean has the option; which house is kept in repair out of the fabric fund. The dean usually has been, and now is, the residentiary and occupier.	None.	The dean, the subdean, and eight prebendaries, compose the chapter. Previously to the order mentioned in column No. 9, the division of the surplus revenue was made among the members present, the absent members taking no share; but it will be seen, by reference to column No. 9, that a different mode of division has been adopted, as stated therein. The dean has an annual stipend of £93 6*s.* 8*d.* as dean, and £70 as residentiary. The sub-dean has an annual stipend of £35, and six prebendaries £23 6*s.* 8*d.* each. The precentor or minor canon also has an annual stipend of £14, and another minor canon £13 6*s.* 8*d.* After payment of these stipends or allowances out of the net income, the dean receives four parts of the surplus, the sub-dean three, and each prebendary two. The average sum so divided being £265.
The net yearly produce is considered as higher than the probable average amount for the future, there having been a short time ago an extraordinary fine upon a lease which had been neglected to be renewed at the customary period. Looking to the average of the five preceding rotas, it may be presumed that the future dividends will be much less than heretofore.	None.	The fabric is in a sound state. The funds for keeping it in repair are certain reserved rents from small estates, and occasional fines upon renewing leases thereof. There are also certain rack rents, calculated to produce about £115 per annum, besides 1-20th part of the chapter fines appropriated by the prebendaries, and producing about £50 per annum, which are applied to the same purpose, and which it is expected will be nearly sufficient for all ordinary repairs.	There is a good residence house for the family of the prebendary whose turn it is to keep his quarterly residence; and there are four houses adjoining it, called the vicar's court, which are occupied by four of the vicars choral, and which were built at the expense of the chapter in 1784; and in 1821 the chapter rebuilt the house occupied by the master of the free school, who is one of the vicars choral.	They all have. See Table No. III.	The chapter consists of sixteen prebendaries, who keep residence in rotation each for three months, and are entitled to an allowance of £85 each towards the expenses of such residence; at the end of each rota, being a term of four years, a division of the fines received for renewals during that period, after deducting the customary payments and allowances, is made in equal portions among the prebendaries. There is a vicar general and commissary, whose net yearly revenue is £13 0*s.* 7*d.*, and six vicars choral, who are entitled on an average to £25 per annum each out of the chapter revenues. The prebendaries divide the surplus net revenue equally among themselves. Five of the vicars reside in houses assigned to them, and the sixth in a house which he occupies as vicar of Southwell.
In some respects the net income will be diminished, and in others it may be increased; the expectation of a decrease is grounded on the resolutions by which the chapter have engaged themselves to augment their poorer livings, and to contribute towards the erection of proper glebe-houses upon them; the expected increase is grounded on the probable improvement of fines, in consequence of the erection of new buildings in Tothill Fields; supposing the value of lands and houses to undergo no depression.	None.	The fabric is sound. The fund for repairs is thus constituted: it receives 1-15th of fines upon renewals, and when a stall is vacant, what would have been due to the prebendary; the produce of timber-bark, gravel, &c.; fines for monuments, and fees for funerals; 1-15th of the redeemed land tax, £45 18*s.* 3*d.*; the dividends of 3 per cents., belonging to the fabric, £47 10*s.*; some other small appropriations, amounting together to £136 1*s.* It has also an equal share with the prebendaries of profits arising from a coronation, and it is assisted from the general fund whenever necessary.	There are houses assigned for the dean and all the prebendaries; the deanery is occupied by the dean, and three prebendary houses are occupied by the prebendaries respectively, to whom they are assigned. The dean and chapter keep the houses in repair.	None.	The corporation consists of the dean and twelve prebendaries. After deducting from the fines the surveyor's charges and certain other outgoings, 1-15th of the remainder is given to the fabric, and the surplus is applied as follows: 1-10th is deducted to secure £200 per annum out of the dividends of the dean, and £100 per annum out of the dividends of each of the prebendaries, to the members of the choir; and after such deduction, 2-14ths of the residue is received by the dean, and out of the final remainder £60 is divided among the prebendaries present at the sealing of the leases; and the rest into twelve equal parts, one for each of the prebendaries. The other sources of revenue are shared by the chapter equally, except that the dean has generally a duplicate portion. His statutable stipend and allowances amount to £232 10*s.* per annum. The stipend of each prebendary is £28 5*s.* The dean has also a fee of £2 for a funeral, and each prebendary 10*s.*; in the case of a peer or peeress the dean has extra £18, and the sub-dean £6 10*s.*; besides which, the dean has a fee of £1 for a monument in the abbey when the party is not interred there, and the prebendary 5*s.* There are six minor canons, of which one is precentor, whose incomes amount in the whole to £761 5*s.* 4*d.* The surplus net revenue according to the said average, after payment of all stipends and allowances, was £19,543.

The average of the fines for the three years ending 1831, was much higher than the average of the three preceding years ending 1828, which amounted to £10,212 17*s.*; the average of the last seven years ending Michaelmas, 1831, was £10,786 10*s.* It is expected that the amount will, in future, be greatly reduced, in consequence of the abatements which the chapter have found it necessary to make in setting their fines; in some cases, to the amount of 20 per cent. The expenditure will be much increased by the augmentations lately made to poor livings in the patronage of the corporation.	None.	The fabric is in a good and sound state, and the funds for keeping the same in repair are supplied out of the revenues of the chapter, arising out of the reserved rents and redeemed land tax.	There are houses assigned to the dean and other members of the chapter, which are kept in repair partly by themselves, individually, and partly by the chapter; the dean and canons paying the taxes.	The dean alone has separate revenues; the deanery of Wolverhampton, and the rectory of Haseley, being annexed to the deanery of Windsor; see Wolverhampton, below; and see rectory of Haseley, diocese of Oxford, Table No. IV.	The corporation consists of the dean and twelve canons, who share the surplus income, after all payments and allowances, in equal portions. The average sum divided between the dean and canons being £17,819. There are also six minor canons, all of whom have an income of £79 12*s.* 5*d.*; two of the number receive, in addition, for extra duty, £8 15*s.*, making their salary £88 7*s.* 5*d.*; and the remaining one receives, in addition to his regular salary, two sums of £8 15*s.* and £4 18*s.* for extra duties; making a total of £93 5*s.* 5*d.* All the minor canons have houses assigned to them for their residence, in which those of them who have not livings constantly reside.
The amount of income depends upon renewals of leases for lives, and upon the uncertain produce of the coal mines, for which the dean receives a proportionate payment called the royalty.	One fourth of the profits of the royalty arising from the mines, is invested, annually, in the three per cent. consols; such investments to be continued, until the sum of £8000 has been laid out in the consols, for the perpetual curate of Wolverhampton, who receives the dividends as they arise.	The chancel is kept in repair by the dean, who has laid out upon it £200 within the three years ending 1831.	None.	The seven prebendaries have separate corpses, or estates, in right of their dignities, respectively. See Table No. III.	The college consists of the dean, who holds the prebend of Wolverhampton, and seven other prebendaries. There is also, under the provision of an Act passed 53 Geo. III., a principal canon, an official, chapter clerk, and registrar. By a grant of Ed. IV. in the nineteenth year of his reign, confirmed by subsequent grants, the deanery and prebend of Wolverhampton were annexed to the deanery of his free chapel of St. George, within the castle of Windsor. The dean receives the whole revenues.

is said to be uncertain whether the vicar is entitled to a cottage and land, with the small tithes, or with a fixed annual payment charged upon the impropriate rectory. In the former case, the annual value of the vicarage would be £100; in the latter case, £40. The vicar is also the lay impropriator.

The church of Windsor claims a portion of the tithes, of which a lease is granted every seven years, with an arbitrary fine, to Magdalen College, d, who own the remainder; and the whole is leased by them to the vicar, who states his incapability of assigning a distinct value to the vicarage.

The Annual Average for each Person upon the Total Gross Income returned is £303; and the Annual Average upon the Total Net Income returned is £285. The Annual Average of the Curates' Stipends is £81.
The Total Number of Benefices in England and Wales, including those not returned to the Commissioners, but exclusive of those annexed to other Preferments, (24 in number,) is 10,718.
The Total Gross Income of the Benefices in England and Wales, including those not returned, and calculated upon the average of those returned, is £3,251,159; and the total Net Income of the same is £3,055,451.
If the amount of the Curates' Stipends, which is included in the Income of the Incumbents, be subtracted therefrom, the Net Income returned will be reduced to £2,579,961, giving an Average of £244 to each Incumbent.

SCALE OF INCOMES.—Under £200, and progressing by £10.

The above classification comprises only the patronage returned to the Commissioners. There are 178 non-returns, and 86 returned omitting the patronage.

As the patronage is frequently divided between different classes of patrons, and is included under each, it is obvious that the aggregate total of the above numbers will not agree with the total number of benefices; and in comparing the patronage as stated in the Benefice Table (No. IV.) with the List of Patronage which follows the Fourth Table, the statements of the two will sometimes be found to be at variance; as, when property is under lease for lives, the lessee has in some cases been returned as the patron, and sometimes the lessor.

* This includes the patronage or nomination exercised by rectors and vicars.

† This number does not comprise the livings in the patronage of the dean and canons of Christ Church, which is included among the deans and chapters; and it is further to be observed, that united livings, and livings with chapels annexed, have in either case been treated as single benefices.

The number of vicarages of which the impropriations have not been returned to the Commissioners, is 223.

Where the impropriation or appropriation of the great tithes is shared between owners of different classes, it is included under each class.

There are some few cases of rectories in which the rector has only a portion of the great tithes, the remainder being the property of a spiritual person or body, or of a lay-impropriator; and in Jersey and Guernsey the benefices are merely nominal rectories, the incumbent not being entitled in any case to more than a portion (generally one-third) of the great tithes, the Crown or governor taking the residue; and in some cases the whole goes to the Crown or governor.

FIRST REPORT

OF

THE ECCLESIASTICAL COMMISSIONERS

UNDER

The Act 3 & 4 W. IV. relating to the Temporalities of the Church in Ireland, dated 9th August 1834.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY RICHARD MARQUESS WELLESLEY, LORD LIEUTENANT GENERAL AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

WE, the Commissioners constituted and appointed under and by virtue of an Act of the Third and Fourth William IV. Chapter 37, intituled "An Act "to alter and amend the Laws relating to the Temporalities of the Church in "Ireland," wherein it is enacted, that the Lord Primate of all Ireland, the Lord High Chancellor of Ireland, being a Member of the United Church of England and Ireland, the Lord Archbishop of Dublin, the Lord Chief Justice of Ireland, being a Member of the United Church of England and Ireland, all now and hereafter for the Time being, and also such Four of the Archbishops or Bishops of Ireland as shall be appointed from Time to Time by His Majesty in Council for the Time being, by Warrant under the Sign Manual, together with Three proper and discreet Persons, being Members of the United Church of England and Ireland, Two of whom to be appointed from Time to Time by His Majesty in Council, by Warrant under the Sign Manual, and the other to be appointed from Time to Time by the said Lord Primate and Lord Archbishop of Dublin for the Time being, by Writing under their respective Hands and Seals, shall be One Body Politic and Corporate, by the Name of "The Ecclesiastical Commissioners for Ireland;" provided always, that the said Lord Chancellor, the Lord Chief Justice, and said Three other Commissioners respectively, and their Successors for ever, do and shall, before acting under said Commission, and at the First Meeting they shall respectively attend, subscribe in the Book of the Minutes of the Proceedings of said Commissioners a Declaration in the Words therein recited;—

Do beg leave to report to Your Excellency, that, at the First Meeting of the Commissioners, held on Tuesday the 24th Day of September 1833, the Lord Primate, the Lord Chancellor, the Archbishop of Dublin, and the Lord Chief Justice being present, there was read His Majesty's Warrant, bearing Date at St. James's the 11th Day of September 1833, in the Fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign, appointing the Most Reverend Richard Archbishop of Cashel; the Right Reverends, Richard Bishop of Derry, Edmond Bishop of Killaloe and Kilfenora, and Charles Bishop of Kildare; Francis Sadleir, Doctor in Divinity; and John Caillard Erck, Esquire, Doctor of Laws, to be Ecclesiastical Commissioners for Ireland; and there was also read the Appointment, bearing the same Date, by the Lord Primate and the Archbishop of Dublin, of William Charles Quin, Esquire, to be an Ecclesiastical Commissioner for Ireland, under the Powers vested in them as aforesaid. After which the Declaration prescribed by the Act of Parliament was subscribed by the Commissioners whose Names are thereunto annexed, viz^{t}. Plunket, C., Charles Bushe, Francis Sadleir, John Caillard Erck, William Charles Quin. Whereupon the aforesaid Commissioners took their Seats at the Board accordingly.

Under and in pursuance of the Provisions contained in the said Act, whereby the Commissioners are directed once in every Year, within Fourteen Days after the First of August, to report to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, under their Hands and Seals, an Account of their Proceedings, and of all their Receipts and Disbursements, for the Year preceding, distinguishing the specific Sources, and the Amount thereof, from which all Monies may have been derived, and the specific Purposes to which the same have been applied; and further enacting, that all Matters and Things, save as therein excepted, which the Commissioners are authorized or required to do and perform, shall and may be done and performed by any Three of them assembled for such Purpose at a Meeting whereof due Notice shall have been given to all of them;—We, the Commissioners constituted and appointed as aforesaid, whose Hands and Seal are hereunto annexed, do beg leave to report to your Excellency the several Proceedings of the Commissioners from the Opening of the Commission, on the 24th Day of September 1833, to the 1st Day of August 1834.

For the Purpose of carrying into execution the several Duties and Trusts reposed in the Commissioners by the said Act, they proceeded, under the Powers vested in them, to take into consideration the Appointment of a Secretary, Treasurer, and other subordinate Officers; and accordingly appointed James Wilson Clerk D. D. to be Secretary, and Isaac D'Olier LL. D. to be Treasurer, with such subordinate Officers as they in their Discretion considered necessary for the Execution of the Duties confided in them.

All Monies which were in the Possession or at the Disposal of the late Trustees and Commissioners of First Fruits, or of any of their Officers, at the Time of the passing of said Act, were transferred to and vested in the Ecclesiastical Commissioners and their Successors for ever, subject however to all Grants and subsisting Contracts previously made by the said Trustees.

The Monies so transferred consisted, in the first place, of Funded Property in the New Three and a Half per Cent. Government Stock, amounting to £34,000.

Secondly, Of a Cash Balance in Bank, to the Credit of the General Fund of that Board, amounting to £2,322 18*s.* 3½*d.*

Thirdly, Of Government Old Three and a Half per Cent. Stock, to the Credit of the Augmentation Fund, entitled "Primate Boulter's," amounting to £30,500.

Fourthly, Of Bank Stock, to the Credit of said Augmentation Fund, amounting to £38,700.

And Fifthly, Of a Cash Balance, to the Credit of the aforesaid Augmentation Fund, amounting to £2,942 2*s.* 4*d.*

But of these Monies, no Part, with the Exception of the Cash Balance to the Credit of the General Fund of that Board, amounting to £2,322 18*s.* 3½*d.*, could be considered in any way available to the Purposes of the Act, in as much as all their Funded Property was actually under Engagements.

The Funded Property in the New Three and a Half per Cent. Stock has been reduced by the Sale of Seven thousand Pounds, to the 1st of August instant, which became necessary in order to meet the Contracts entered into by the Trustees of First Fruits, thereby leaving an appropriated Balance in Stock to the Amount of Twenty-seven thousand Pounds, £27,000. And, as regards the Interest, Dividends, and Proceeds arising from the Properties and Funds respectively bequeathed by Primates Boulter and Robinson, the Application of these is limited and reserved by the Act to the Purposes to which they had been theretofore applied, and none other; namely, the Purchase of Glebes, and the Augmentation of Poor Livings in Ireland.

Exclusive of the Funded Property of the late Trustees and Commissioners of First Fruits, so transferred as aforesaid, there were, at the Time of the passing of the Act, certain other Monies outstanding and due to the Trustees, which were also transferred and vested in the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and were available and applicable to the Purposes of the Act. These consisted, in the first place, of Monies due and payable by Spiritual Persons, under the Name and Denomination of First Fruits and Arrears thereof; secondly, of Monies theretofore lent for the Building or Improvement of Glebe Houses and Offices, repayable by annual Instalments; and thirdly, of Monies theretofore lent for the Purpose of building, enlarging, or repairing the Church or Chapel of any Parish, which had been levied and collected previously to the passing of the Act.

With respect to the First Fruits it appears that this Revenue had been granted by the Crown to Trustees and Commissioners for the Building and Repair of Churches, and for the Purchase of Glebes and Impropriations, so that while its Appropriation was vested in the Trustees of First Fruits, the Collection and Receipt of the Revenue were always granted to Persons appointed by Patent by the Crown, under the Name of the Clerk and Receiver of First Fruits; and as the Church Temporalities Act directs that all Sums of Money due on account of First Fruits, and the Arrears thereof, shall be sued for and recovered by the same Means and Processes as heretofore, and that all Powers or Remedies for the Recovery thereof given or mentioned in any Act of Parliament shall continue in full Force and Effect, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners were advised to apply to your Excellency, requesting that a Patent might be granted to the Treasurer of their Board, so as to invest him with the necessary Power and Authority to collect in and receive all Arrears of First Fruits under the Statutes in that Case made and provided; which Patent having been accordingly granted, and a Return of the Arrears of First Fruits and Fees having been made by the late Patentees and Receivers thereof, amounting to £3,538 1*s.* 6*d.*, the necessary Steps were taken for the Recovery of same; and it appears that of this Sum there has been received, to the 1st of August instant, £695 0*s.* 11½*d.*, thereby leaving a Balance still outstanding on this Account of £2,843 0*s.* 6½*d.* It is here necessary to remark, that the above-mentioned Arrears were for the most Part of considerable standing, and that no more than a Sum of £1,065 13*s.* 3*d.* had accrued due within the Four Years preceding the passing of the Church Temporalities Act; and of the Balance still outstanding the present Patentee reports that the Sum of £910 6*s.* 3*d.* may be considered as lost, the Parties indebted in this Amount being dead or supposed to have left the Country; and that he expects the Remainder may be gradually collected in, when the Clergy are placed in a Situation to enable them effectually to collect their Incomes; the Want of Means has been the general Reason assigned by the Clergy, at present, for not satisfying this Demand when applied to.

Of the annual Instalments due on account of Monies lent by the Trustees of First Fruits for building and improving Glebe Houses and Offices, it appeared that there was outstanding the Sum of £12,623 13*s.* 7*d.*; and Measures having been taken by the Commissioners for the Collection of same, a Sum to the Amount of £4,114 11*s.* 4*d.* has been received to the 1st Instant on this Account. And with respect to the Instalments due by Parishes on account of Monies lent by the said Trustees for building, enlarging, or repairing Churches, it is to be observed, that, although all Sums of Money which had been advanced for such Purposes, and remained unpaid, are remitted and discharged from and after the Commencement of the Act, yet the Commissioners found that various Sums of Money had been previously levied on account of such Instalments, and were lying in the Hands of Churchwardens and other Persons unaccounted for; and as the Trustees of First Fruits would have been empowered to sue for and recover the same, the Commissioners, who are now invested with the like Powers, proceeded to take Measures for the Recovery of the Amount of Instalments so levied and unaccounted for, of which there has been received, to the 1st Instant, the Sum of £1,645 9*s.* 5*d.*, and legal Proceedings are now in progress for the Recovery of any Monies still outstanding on this Account.

The other Sources of available Revenue, to the 1st of August, arose from the temporal Profits and Emoluments which had accrued due in respect to the See of Waterford since the Death of the late Bishop; the annual Sum of £4,160 payable by the present Bishop of Derry out of the Revenues of that Bishoprick; and the Perpetuity Purchase Fund.

From the First of these Sources there has been received a gross Sum of £3,547 2*s.* 1*d.*; of the annual Sum payable by the Bishop of Derry the Commissioners are in daily Expectation of the Payment of the First Moiety; and of the Perpetuity Purchase Fund, the gross Amount of Money lodged in the Bank on this Account is £2,365 0*s.* 2*d.*; which Sums, in addition to some others of a miscellaneous Nature, as detailed in the Account hereunto annexed, make the Total Income of the available Revenue of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, to the 1st of August instant, amount to the Sum of £15,852 13*s.* 2*d.*, including the Cash Balance of the late Board of First Fruits.

The Purposes to which the Proceeds of all Monies are applicable by the Act, save and except those arising from Boulter's and Robinson's Bequests, are the providing Things necessary for the Celebration of Divine Service as required and authorized by any Rubric or Canon in force in England or Ireland; the Payment of Parish Clerks' and Sextons' Salaries, and of all Monies heretofore provided, by Vestry or other Assessment, for the Maintenance of any Curate, Lecturer, Clerk, or other Assistant in the Celebration of Divine Worship, under and by virtue of any Law, Statute, or Custom; the defraying the Expenses of building, rebuilding, or repairing any Church or Chapel, or of fencing or maintaining any Churchyard, such as have been theretofore defrayed by Vestry Assessments in Ireland; and the contributing to the Repairs of Churches being both Parochial and Cathedral, and to the Expenses of the Matters required for the Celebration of Divine Service within them, as aforesaid, in the Proportions agreed on between the Dean and Chapter and the Protestant Inhabitants of any Parish or Place.

It is unnecessary here to refer to the other Purposes to which the Revenues arising under the Act are applicable, inasmuch as it is specially provided that such further Application of the Funds can only be made in case of any Surplus or Balance remaining in the Hands of the Commissioners after due Provision shall have been made for the several Objects and Purposes before mentioned; and there is no such Surplus or Balance at present at the Disposal of the Commissioners.

One of the First Objects to which the Commissioners directed their Attention was the Estimate which the Incumbent of each Parish is required to furnish of the Monies necessary for ordinary Repairs and providing Things requisite for the Celebration of Divine Service in each Church or Chapel for the ensuing Year, certified and approved of by the Rural Dean and Ordinary, in the Manner by said Act directed. At the Time, however, when the Church Temporalities Act came into operation, it appeared that the Vestry Cess, commencing at Easter 1833, was in arrear and unpaid, except in a very few Parishes, and that the Act contained no Provision to meet the Purposes for which that Cess was made, although it declares that all Rates and Assessments for any Church Purpose, and all Proceedings for the Levy thereof, should wholly cease and determine from and after its Commencement. The Commissioners therefore undertook, at the Instance of His Majesty's Government, as well to inquire into and ascertain, as to discharge, the Monies which had been voted at the preceding Easter Vestries for exclusively Church Purposes, as soon as Funds should be placed at their Disposal by Government for the Purpose. Forms of Return were accordingly prepared and circulated among the Clergy, and due Care taken that no greater Sum should be allowed for any Item than what had usually been assessed for the same in the Three Years preceding, unless sufficient Reasons were given to justify a Departure from this Principle.

The Monies which have been advanced by Government for discharging these Arrears of Vestry Cess amount to £46,000; of which Sum there remains at this Date £10,009 6*s.* 2*d.* unexpended; and it is conceived that this Balance may be sufficient to meet the Claims still under Investigation, arising out of Vestry Cesses made at Easter 1833, and of the Arrears of 1832 and 1831.

With the view of imposing the yearly Tax or Rate to which all Promotions Spiritual becoming void after the passing of the Act are subjected, the Commissioners required, in conformity with the Provisions of the said Act, every Spiritual Corporation Sole of whatever Denomination, and every Spiritual Corporation Aggregate, and the Members thereof, to make a Return of the true and entire yearly Value of their Spiritual Promotions, and of the Lands, Tenements, and Profits thereto respectively belonging, and of all Rents, Synodals, Proxies, and other Charges which each Person is bound to pay, in order that the latter may be deducted, and the Amount of Tax computed according to the Rates and Scales specified, as the several Benefices shall become vacant. And with the view of ascertaining every such Vacancy as it occurs, the Archbishops and Bishops have been required, as directed by the Act, to make half-yearly Returns of all Promotions within their respective Dioceses, on the 1st of November 1833 and 1st of May 1834, and by these Returns it appears, that from the Time of the passing of the Act to the 1st of May last Two Bishopricks and Fifty Benefices have become vacant, of which Benefices there are only Thirteen subject to the Tax, the Value of each of the remaining Benefices not exceeding in Amount £300 a Year, after allowing the Deductions specified in the Act. But we have to observe, that no Revenue has been received, or could reasonably be expected, from this Source of Income, to the 1st Instant, for, although the Tax becomes payable on the 1st of January and 1st of July next after the Return of each Incumbent's Promotion, the Commissioners are empowered by the 24th Section of the Act to extend the Time of Payment in case it shall appear to their Satisfaction that the Person chargeable therewith shall not have received the Profits of his Benefice; and, as the Tithe Composition Rents will not become payable until after the 1st of November in the present Year, the Commissioners conceived that the Powers vested in them by the Act under this Provision would be duly exercised in extending the Time of Payment until after the Period referred to.

By the Translation of the late Bishop of Killaloe and Kilfenora to the united Sees of Limerick, Ardfert, and Aghadoe, which became vacant by Death, the Bishopricks of Clonfert and Kilmacduagh became united, by virtue of the Act, to those of Killaloe and Kilfenora, and the Bishop of Clonfert, without further Grant or Ceremony, became entitled to the Temporalities of the Sees of Killaloe and Kilfenora, so that the Revenues of those of Clonfert and Kilmacduagh vested in this Board; and, in consequence of the subsequent Decease of the late Bishop of Killalla, the Temporalities of the united Sees of Killalla and Achonry have become, by virtue of the Act, also vested in the Ecclesiastical Commissioners; but with the Exception of a small Sum, to the Amount of £60, received from the See Estate of Clonfert, we have not as yet received, nor could we reasonably expect, any available Revenue to arise from these Sources to the 1st of August instant.

Under and by virtue of the Provision in the Act whereby the Commissioners are empowered, by and with the Consent of your Excellency, testified in Writing, to demise the See Houses and Offices, and all or any Part of the Mensal or Demesne Lands of Bishopricks the Temporalities of which are vested in the Commissioners, as they become vacant, Proceedings have been taken, by means of competent and professional Persons appointed for the Purpose, to ascertain by Survey the Value of the Mensal or Demesne Lands attached to the See Houses of Waterford, Clonfert, and Killalla respectively.

It appearing in the Case of Clonfert that the See House of Killaloe was to be the future Residence of the continuing Bishop of the united Sees of Killaloe and Clonfert, and, in the Case of Killalla, that the Archbishop of Tuam had declined to elect the See House of Killalla to be the future See House of the united Bishopricks of Tuam and Killalla, the Commissioners directed that the Houses, Offices, and Demesne Lands of Clonfert and Killalla should be advertised for Sale, and the Proposals made by the several Parties are now under Consideration; but, as regards the See House and Demesne of Waterford, legal and unexpected Difficulties have arisen and still lie in the Way of enabling the Archbishop of Cashel to declare whether or not it is his Intention to elect the See House at Waterford to be the future See House of the united Bishopricks of Cashel and Waterford.

The Commissioners, however, hope that these Difficulties will soon be removed; and no Loss has accrued by such Election not having been made, as the Tenants of the Mensal Lands of the Waterford See Estate, under the late Bishop, are still in Occupation of their respective Holdings, and have paid their respective Rents to this Board up to the last Gale Day.

By the yearly Estimates, which the Incumbents of the respective Parishes were directed to make, for the Year commencing with Easter last, it appeared that large Sums of Money were required for the Repairs of Parochial Churches, owing, in a considerable Degree as it would seem, to the Nonpayment in many Parishes of the Vestry Cess for One, Two, and, in some Cases, Three Years preceding the passing of the Church Temporalities Act; and as the Churches had in many Instances sustained such material Injuries as to render a greater Expenditure necessary than in ordinary Cases would suffice, the Commissioners did not feel themselves justified in incurring any considerable Expense under this Head, except indeed in Cases of extreme Urgency, without previously requiring the Incumbent of each Parish to answer certain Queries respecting the Age, Condition, and State of Repair of his Church, the Accommodation which it afforded, and whether he considered an Inspection by the Provincial Architect to be necessary in order to estimate the Expense requisite for putting the Church into a State of complete and thorough Repair. A Copy of these Queries, as illustrative of the Information sought for on this Subject, we have directed to be appended to this Report.

The Results of this Proceeding have been, that in 441 Cases the Parochial Clergy have reported that an Inspection by the Provincial Architect would be either absolutely necessary or highly desirable; and, in all Cases where an Outlay of Money was reported to be necessary, the Commissioners availed themselves of the professional Experience of the Architects, in the Examination of the Estimates, previously to any Grant being made for Repairs.

A considerable Time, however, must elapse before the Inspections can take place, and a Specification of the necessary Repairs be furnished, so as to enable the Commissioners to act upon the Reports of the Architects; but they feel confident, that, however much it may be regretted that any Delay should take place in the Execution of these Repairs, the Regulations adopted by them will prove a Measure of Economy in the End, and afford greater Security to these Buildings in future. At the same Time they cannot lose sight of the Importance of not allowing any unnecessary Delay to occur respecting less extensive and indispensable Repairs, as far as the Resources at their immediate Command will justify; and, with the view of duly appropriating their Funds to Repairs of a pressing Nature, the Commissioners must confine themselves for the present to keeping the Walls and the Roofs of Churches Proof against the Weather during the ensuing Winter, postponing until next Spring all further Repairs which may be required, in the Hope that by that Time they may have such Funds at their Command as will enable them no longer to delay so necessary a Work as the complete, thorough, and efficient Repair of Parochial Churches.

The Severity of the Weather during the latter Part of the present Season has been the Means of obliging this Board to advance Monies to the Amount of £1,152 0*s.* 3*d.* for the Purpose of executing extraordinary Repairs of Churches, the immediate Want of which became necessary by reason of accidental Injury or other unforeseen Events; and all such Repairs the Commissioners have undertaken to provide for, on an Application, approved of by the Ordinary, from the Incumbent or Officiating Minister of the Parish.

There has been One Instance only of a malicious and wanton Injury done to a Church, in which the Commissioners have been obliged to resort to that Provision in the Statute which enables them to obtain Compensation from the County in which the Church is situated, to be levied by Grand Jury Presentment; and they should have conceived it unnecessary to advert to this solitary Instance of malicious Injury, the Extent of which did not exceed £10, were it not from the Desire of furnishing in their Statement a full Report of their several Proceedings under the Act to your Excellency.

With reference to providing for the Repairs of Churches, the Commissioners cannot but advert to the Proceedings which they have caused to be instituted, in the Name of the Archbishop of Cashel as Bishop of Waterford and Lismore, in the Case of the Impropriate Tithes of Cahir in the County of Tipperary and Diocese of Lismore, compounded for the Sum of £500, and which Tithes it would appear, having been formerly bequeathed for the Purpose of keeping in repair the Parochial Churches of this Diocese, were demised by the late Doctor Joseph Stock, when Bishop of Waterford, to the late Lord Cahir and others. An adverse Claim to these Tithes has been recently set up by the Earl of Glengall, which the Commissioners have caused to be put into a Course of legal Investigation, as is above referred to.

In connexion with the Subject of Churches the Commissioners cannot but express the Satisfaction they feel in having to report to your Excellency that many Applications have been made to them for Aid for the Erection of additional Churches, it appearing that the Accommodation at present subsisting in those Districts or Parishes from which the Applications have been received are quite insufficient for the Congregations of the Established Church; and while the Commissioners have to mention that in many Cases the Parties have expressed their Willingness to contribute or cause to be contributed certain Proportions of the Expenses of building, in some Cases amounting to a Fifth, in some to a Half, and in others to Three Fourths of the Expenses requisite for the Purpose, they cannot but regret that as their Surplus Funds alone are applicable to the Objects now under Consideration, they could hold out no immediate Prospect of the Applications in question being favourably entertained at the present. The Board have, however, given every Assurance in their Power, that as soon as there shall be any available Fund for such Purposes these Applications shall receive the earliest Consideration. And they are fully satisfied, from the Inquiries which have been made at this Office, that had they been enabled to hold out any present Encouragement to the building of Churches the Applications on this Subject would have been under such Circumstances far more numerous than those they have now to refer to.

a Fifth,

Very many Applications have also been made from Incumbents of Parishes for Aid either to build Glebe Houses or to augment Poor Livings. These we also regret to say, from the Cause already mentioned with reference to our Surplus Funds, have met with no better Success. But however desirable it would be that Glebes and Residences should be provided for all the Parochial Clergy, as without them their Utility and beneficial Influence, more particularly to poor Districts, are considerably diminished, yet the Commissioners have the less Cause of Regret on this Subject than in the former, inasmuch as there is no Limit or Restraint placed by the Church Temporalities Act to the Laws previously in force for the Building or Improvement of Glebe Houses, but, on the contrary, it is specially provided that Incumbents may proceed under and according to the said Laws in the same Manner as if that Act had not been passed.

And as regards the granting of Augmentations, although the Commissioners see no immediate Means of effecting this most desirable Object out of their own Funds, yet as they have brought under the Notice of your Excellency and the Privy Council the Provision of the Statute relative to the Deaneries of Down and Raphoe, in the former Case at the Instance of the Lord Chancellor, the said Act reciting that the now Deans of Down and Raphoe are assenting Parties to such Arrangements being made as may to your Excellency and the Council seem fit with respect to the disappropriating and disuniting any Rectory, Vicarage, Tithes, and Glebes, or Portions thereof, from and out of said Deaneries, and the uniting same to their respective Vicarages or Perpetual or other Curacies, so as to form distinct Parishes or Benefices; and as Measures have been taken by your Excellency and the Council to give effect to this Provision of the Statute from and after the Periods stated in the Minutes of the Council Board; and as, when such Disappropriations shall have taken effect, the Regulations now in force relative to Primate Boulter's Fund will preclude the Augmentation Salaries which had been theretofore payable to the Perpetual Curates established within the Parishes, now forming the Corps of these Deaneries, from being continued to them, and consequently the Salaries so paid heretofore will be at the Disposal of the Board to be granted to Incumbents of Poor Livings, in such Manner, and to such Extent, and under such Rules and Regulations, as are provided with reference to the Disposal of this Fund.

In consequence, too, of the Demise of the late Archdeacon of Down, the Commissioners have been given to understand that your Excellency and the Council have also made Arrangements to give effect to that Provision of the Statute relative to the Perpetual Cures now erected within the Parishes forming the Corps of the Archdeaconry; and further, to disunite the Perpetual Cure of Killeagh from the Union of Loughcrew, now vacant, in the Diocese of Meath, and to erect each of the Cures in both these Cases into a separate and distinct Benefice;—We expect that there will be a further disposable Income arising from the Salaries now enjoyed by these Perpetual Curates respectively, which will also be available for the Augmentation of Poor Livings, out of Boulter's Fund, in the Manner already provided.

With respect to that Provision in the 116th Section of the Statute which enables the Commissioners to direct the Suspension of the Appointment of Clerks to Benefices in the Patronage of His Majesty, or in the Collation or Presentation of any Ecclesiastical Dignitary or Corporation, and in which it shall appear by the Certificate of the Ordinary that Divine Worship had not been celebrated for the Three Years preceding the 1st February 1833, we have to report to your Excellency that there have become void since the passing of the Act the following Benefices, Five in all; viz. the Vicarage of Liscleary in the Diocese of Cork, the Vicarage of Carne, and the Rectory of Croghan in the Diocese of Kildare, the Rectory and Vicarage of Ardskeagh in the Diocese of Cloyne, and the Vicarage of Seskenan in the Diocese of Lismore, which came within the Operation and Effect of this Provision; and as the Commissioners consider this to be a very important Provision in the Statute, we would beg leave to report, as well the Proceedings had in general with regard to it, as those in particular relating to the several Benefices in question.

Each of the Archbishops and Bishops in Ireland was required, at the Commencement of the Proceedings of this Board, to furnish a List of the Benefices in their respective Dioceses in which Divine Worship had not been celebrated within the Period specified in the Statute, in order that, as these Benefices should become void, the Commissioners might have some Record in their Office which would justify them in calling for the special Certificate required of the Ordinary under the Act in each Case; and as the aforesaid Benefices severally fell void an Application was accordingly made to the respective Diocesans, not merely for the required Certificate, but also for a full Statement, as pointed out in the 118th Section, of the several Particulars as to the Extent of each Benefice, its annual Value, the Amount of Population, the Number of Protestants residing within it, the Condition of the Church and Glebe House, if any, and the Quantity of Land belonging to each, in order that all the Circumstances bearing upon the Question might be taken into consideration at the same Time with that of the Propriety of directing the Appointment of a Clerk to be suspended. In the Cases of the Benefices of Liscleary in the Diocese of Cork, and of Ardskeagh in that of Cloyne, as soon as this Board had formed an Intention of suspending the Appointment, due Notice of such Purpose was given to the Bishops of Cork and Cloyne, in whose Dioceses respectively these Benefices are situate, as also of the Time of the Meeting of the Commissioners to be held for the Purpose of carrying this Provision of the Act into effect, and the Attendance of their Lordships at such Meeting requested, in order that each of them respectively might be associated with the Commissioners in determining upon the Propriety of directing such Suspension as aforesaid, and voting upon all Questions relative thereto, as if he were a Commissioner. But in the Cases of the remaining Three Benefices such Notice was not necessary, as the Archbishop of Cashel and the Bishop of Kildare, in whose Dioceses they are respectively situate are Commissioners.

With respect to the Particulars of Information obtained with reference to these Five Benefices, all of which were collative, it appeared that the Churches in all of them were in Ruins, that there was no Glebe House in any, and that the only Glebe Lands in them were Ten Acres in Carne and Four in Ardskeagh; that there were no Protestants permanently residing in Carne or in Ardskeagh, while in Croghan there were only Nine, and in Liscleary and Seskenan about Thirty in each; and that the gross Income of the Five Benefices amounted to the total Sum of about £405 13*s*. 6*d*. per Annum.

Under these Circumstances, therefore, the Commissioners, by Instruments under their Corporate Seal, directed that the Collation of Clerks to these Benefices should be suspended. And as the Circumstances of these Benefices did not, in our Judgment and in that of the respective Bishops, seem to require at present that the Proceeds thereof should, in any of the Cases, be applied to the building of their respective Churches and Glebe Houses, all the Tithes, Profits, and Emoluments thereunto belonging, and all Arrears thereof, will be payable into the general Fund of this Board. Nothing however has been as yet obtained from this Source of Revenue, inasmuch as the Tithe Composition Rent will not be payable till after the 1st of next November.

In no Case did it appear that the spiritual Wants of any of these Benefices at present required that a distinct Curate or Officiating Minister should be specially licensed for the Performance of the Ecclesiastical Duties in One particular Parish alone, and consequently the Cure of Souls, and all and every the occasional Duties within the Benefices so remaining unfilled, have been committed to the Incumbents or Officiating Ministers of adjoining Parishes, who have been nominated and appointed by the respective Diocesans at Stipends varying from £4 to £25 yearly.

One of the most important Duties which has devolved upon the Commissioners has been the Ascertainment and Calculation of the Terms of Purchase of of Perpetuities in their several Holdings, for the Tenants of Bishops and other Sole Ecclesiastical Corporations, who have made Application for that Purpose in pursuance of the Provisions of the Statute.

In order to facilitate, as far as possible, the Tenants of Church Lands in acquiring Perpetuities, the Commissioners prepared Forms for the several Notices, Requisitions, and Returns necessary in the Progress of the Proceedings directed to be taken; and also Queries, to be answered both by the Lessees and their Ecclesiastical Landlords; and these Forms being furnished, on Demand, to all Applicants for Purchase, have tended much to save Trouble and Expense to the Tenants, and to enable the Commissioners to ascertain the Value of the respective Holdings according to the usual and accustomed Mode of ascertaining and estimating the same by the Ecclesiastical Landlords in whose Diocese, Dignity, or Promotion the Lands, were situate, and, upon this Basis to estimate and compute the respective Values of the Fee Simple and Inheritance in such Lands, subject to the Rent to be reserved thereout in manner appointed by the Act, and of the Interest possessed by the respective Tenants under their then subsisting Leases, and to determine and declare the Amount of Purchase Money to be paid by such Tenants for the Perpetuities to be acquired by them under the Act.

Previously to adopting the Principles of Calculation which appeared to the Board to be conformable with the Terms of the Statute, we sought for and obtained the Advice of His Majesty's Attorney General upon every Point which appeared to us to involve the least Difficulty; and, being thus fortified by the first legal Opinion, we proceeded to compute the Terms of Purchase of the several Persons holding Church Lands who had notified their being ready and willing to purchase. Six of these Tenants have completed their Purchases, and One hundred other Applications are now under Consideration, the Calculations in respect of Twenty-nine of them have been made, and the Remainder will be proceeded with as soon as the necessary Information shall have been obtained in reply to the Requisitions and Queries sent out both to Landlords and Tenants; but this in most Cases involves considerable Delay.

The Commissioners are induced to hope that the Terms of Purchase ascertained by them, and resulting from the Principles they have adopted, (which Principles have been sanctioned by the Approbation of the Law Officers of the Crown,) will be found so moderate, that most of the Lessees of Ecclesiastical Landlords will see the great Benefit of availing themselves of the Provisions of the Act to convert their insecure and uncertain Tenures into permanent and indefeasible Estates of Inheritance, by which their present actual Value will be so much increased beyond the Aggregate of their previous Worth and the Purchase Money to be paid for the Change; and by means of which such considerable Encouragement is held out for Improvement of the respective Estates, and for the Expenditure of Capital, as to lead to the Expectation that even in this respect the Enactments of the Statute may prove a great National Advantage.

And, in conclusion, we beg leave to annex to this our Report an Account of all Receipts and Disbursements during the Period aforesaid, distinguishing the specific Sources from which all Monies have been derived, and the Amount of each Source, with an Account of the specific Purposes to which the Receipts have been applied.

All which is humbly submitted to your Excellency's Consideration.

No. 2.—Queries referred to in the foregoing Report respecting the Age, Condition, and State of Repairs, &c. of Churches.

Office of Ecclesiastical Commissioners for Ireland,
2, Kildare Street.

Reverend Sir,

I am directed by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for Ireland to transmit the accompanying Queries respecting your Church, and to request that you will have the Goodness to return Answers to as many of them as you can, with the least possible Delay, as they have no Doubt that you will see the Importance of having the requisite Repairs executed during the present Season, in order that the Church may be in a State of perfect Repair before Winter.

I have the Honour to be,
Your obedient humble Servant,
(Signed) James Wilson, Secretary.
